

Ignite Week Day 5 - Friday

God, I'm Saying Yes!

“I am the Lord’s servant. May your word to me be fulfilled.” — Luke 1:38

There comes a point when listening becomes responding.

This week, you’ve made space to hear from Jesus, slowed down enough to pay attention, invited Him to reveal what may be getting in the way, and asked Him to show you your next step.

Today is about saying yes—and asking who that yes is for beyond you.

Mary could not have known everything her yes would mean. But she made herself available to God and His purposes: “I am the Lord’s servant. May your word to me be fulfilled.” Her yes was deeply personal, but it was never only about her. God was at work through her for the sake of others.

The same is true for us. Jesus never intended His work in us to stop with us. The grace, love, truth, hope, and good news we receive from Him become things we carry into the places where we live, learn, work, and play.

Your yes may lead you to someone you already know—a family member, friend, neighbor, coworker, classmate, or teammate. It may lead you to notice someone you normally overlook, meet a need, share what Jesus is doing in your life, or help someone else take a step toward Him.

Yesterday the question was: Jesus, what are You asking me to do? Today it becomes: Jesus, what do You want to do through me? Who are You sending me to?

READ

Read Luke 1:26–38 slowly. Notice what Mary hears, the questions she asks, and how she responds.

Then read verse 38 again. What does Mary’s response reveal about her posture toward God?

ASK

Jesus, You have my attention. Today I give You my yes.

Take what You have been doing in me and use it for Your purposes. Open my eyes to the people around me and where You are already at work.

Jesus, I’m saying yes to You. Show me what You want to do through me and who You want to send me to. Amen.

LISTEN

Sit quietly before God for several minutes. Think back to the next step you discerned yesterday. Now consider how Jesus might want to work through you as you take that step.

Who is Jesus placing on my heart? Who around me might He be inviting me to love, serve, encourage, or share with? Where is He already at work?

RESPOND

Look back over what you’ve read, heard, and written this week. Write down your responses to:

WHAT am I saying yes to?

WHO is Jesus sending me to?

HOW and WHEN will I put my yes into action?

Jesus, I give You my yes. Work through me and give me courage to go where You send me. Amen.
