

August 18, 2026 - Rich Williams Named Approved Instructor for Moseley Real Estate School

Coldwell Banker Richwill Realty is proud to announce that Principal Broker and Owner, Rich Williams, has been officially named an approved instructor for Moseley Real Estate School, one of the region's most prestigious providers of real estate education.

Through this partnership, Mr. Williams will offer Moseley's state-certified licensing and continuing education courses, bringing his decades of industry expertise directly to aspiring agents and seasoned professionals looking to advance their careers.

"Education is the foundation of a successful real estate career," said Rich Williams. "I am honored to partner with Moseley Real Estate School to help guide the next generation of Realtors. By combining Moseley's proven curriculum with real-world insights from the field, we are providing students with the tools they need to navigate today's complex market with confidence."

Moseley Real Estate School has been a leader in the industry since 1972, known for its comprehensive "Moseley Method" which emphasizes student success and high pass rates. As an approved instructor, Williams will facilitate courses that cover Florida's licensing requirements, ethics, and specialized real estate practices.

Williams' appointment reinforces Coldwell Banker Richwill Realty's commitment to professional excellence and community development. By hosting Moseley courses, the firm serves as a hub for local talent to gain their credentials under the mentorship of an active, top-producing broker.

Prospective students and agents interested in registering for upcoming classes can find more information and view Rich Williams' instructor profile online or visit the Davenport office at 39865 US Highway 27.
