

Rights of the Baby

- To be recognized as a person who was born and died.
- To be named.
- To be seen, touched, and held by the family.
- To have the end of life acknowledged.
- To be put to rest with dignity.

Rights of Children When a Sibling Dies

- To be acknowledged as individuals who have feelings that need to be expressed.
- To be given the choice to see and hold our sibling before and after the death within reason.
- To be considered in the choices parents are given, we may have opinions on such things as plans for a funeral, baby's name, etc.
- To be informed about the feelings of grief in our terms, giving us the choice of a support group or counselor.
- To be recognized by our society that we will always love and miss our sibling.