A Note From The Teacher

We will be celebrating Valentine's Day as a class with a Valentine exchange at the end of the day on Wednesday, February 11. If students want to exchange Valentines, please make sure they bring one for everyone (14 students) to avoid hurt feelings. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Reminders

I look forward to meeting with you and your child at conferences on Thursday, February 12. A reminder that we have an 11 am dismissal that day and no school on Friday, February 13.

What We Are Learning

This week, we studied the "jobs" prepositional phrases can do in a sentence: act as an adjective or as an adverb.

We also continued our analysis of informational texts. The RI.3 test will be next Wednesday, February 11. In art class, we began a new project by practicing different techniques for using oil pastels.

At Home

Please encourage your child to read over the long weekend to work toward his or her February reading goal!
