A Note From The Teacher

Please join us for our Open House on Sunday, January 25. We will start with 8:30 Mass followed by the pancake breakfast sponsored by our Home and School. Classrooms will be open to visit and tours will start at 10:00. Any students in uniform attending Mass, joining us for the pancake breakfast, and/or visiting the classrooms with their families will receive an out of uniform pass!

Reminders

The red Thursday folder has a lot of important stuff this week! Please return your family's conference scheduling slip by Thursday, January 29. Consult the Catholic Schools Week flyer for out of uniform and event information for next week!

What We Are Learning

*We began a new unit in literacy class this week. Students will learn about prepositional phrases and how to include them in their own writing. We will also be analyzing informational texts, focusing on interactions among individuals, events, and ideas.

*Students have one more week to meet their January reading goals!

*In art class, most students finished their agamographs and their classroom door decorations. You can see both on display during Open House!
