A Note From The Teacher

Thank you to everyone who came to Gallery Night! Today, your students will be bringing home their artwork.

We planted our onion plants, as well as a variety of peppers, in our school garden today!

We are still in need of volunteers to help with the 8th grade graduation. Please sign up here.

Reminders

On Wednesday, May 27, the 7th grade will participate in the Candlemass and symbolically accept their new role as leaders in the school. Please join us at 10 am for worship. Students should dress up for the Mass. No jeans, graphic tees, bare shoulders, short dresses/skirts, or open-toed shoes!

What We Are Learning

Students were assessed on evaluating arguments in informational texts then began researching for their argumentative essay about teens and caffeine consumption.

In art class, students continued to make progress on their food trucks.

Students began researching St. Boniface, whom we will remember when 7th grade leads Mass on June 5.

At Home

Please encourage your child to read over the long weekend to work toward May goals!
