A Note From The Teacher

Next week, students will take their final Star reading and math tests of the year.

We spent some time in the sun today!

What We Are Learning

This week, we began our final literacy unit, which will involve evaluating arguments in informational texts and videos then writing an argumentative essay. Ask your child something they learned from the "Insects for Dinner" article we read. Reply to the latest 7th Grade News email with their answer to enter your child into a drawing for a free book!

Finally, we started planning for our last art project - a mini food truck!
