MONDAY MANNA

A Sermon Recap with Weekly Application

Sermon Series:

Message: “But God Loved Me Anyway” Romans 5:6–8

God’s love is a gift, not a paycheck. Paul reminds us that Christ died for us while we were still powerless, ungodly, and sinful. We did not earn our place at God’s table through performance, status, or righteousness. God chose to love us before we had anything to offer Him. As Thanksgiving approaches, remember that even when life is difficult, being loved by God is reason enough to give thanks.

Quick Bite

1. God’s Love Provides for the Powerless (v. 6)

God’s love does for us what we cannot do for ourselves. While we were powerless, Christ died for us. Our worth to God is not measured by what we can produce or provide. He chose to love us before we could do anything in return. His love is not transactional.

2. God’s Love Broke the Rules for Who God Believes In (vv. 7–8)

Human love often reaches its limit when people no longer seem deserving. But God shattered that ceiling at the cross. Christ died for sinners, not just for those considered worthy. God’s love is not reserved for the powerful, the privileged, or the perfect.

Big Bite

Give Thanks Beyond the Blessings

Each day this week, thank God for His love before asking for anything. Read Romans 5:8 and name one moment when you experienced His kindness without earning it. Even if your circumstances have not changed, let gratitude begin with the cross.

Give Love Without an Invoice

Choose someone who cannot repay you. Offer a meal, a word of encouragement, or a practical act of kindness without expecting recognition or a favor in return. Let your actions reflect the love God has freely given you.

The Crumb

“When you realize God loved you at your lowest, Thanksgiving stops being a holiday and becomes a lifestyle.”
