School Resource for LCHS and District #27

The goals of well-founded SRO programs include providing safe learning environments in our community's schools, providing valuable resources to school staff members, fostering positive relationships with youth, developing strategies to resolve problems affecting youth and protecting all students, so that they can reach their fullest potentials. The three main roles of school resource officers are: educator (i.e. guest lecturer), informal counselor/mentor, and law enforcement officer.

Officer Butterfield responded to incidents at LCHS about class misconduct and incidents that required parental contact, theft, mental health issues and vandalism.

Officer Fruge has responded to incidents at LJHS about social/emotional issues and general counseling issues that required parental contact and truancy.
