Lincoln Police Department hosted the 4th Annual D.A.R.E. Officer Training

During the weeks of February 5th through February 16th, the Lincoln Police Department hosted its 4th Annual D.A.R.E. Officer Training Program. Officer Christy Fruge is the Illinois D.A.R.E. Officer Coordinator and is how Lincoln became the training hub for the D.A.R.E. program statewide.

There were 8 Officers that attended and graduated from the two week training program. The closest came from Lincoln and the farthest came from Ozark County Missouri Sheriff's Department. The others came from all parts of Illinois. They stay in our hotels, patronize our businesses and dine in our restaurants. As a final benchmark in the training program, these Officers teach a course of instruction at our local schools.

The Lincoln Police Department is proud of our D.A.R.E. Officers and the strides the D.A.R.E. Program is taking to positively affect the lives of the children in all communities.
