Information & Consent Form

Please carefully read through this important information and consent, initial at the end of each line, and sign at the bottom.

Credentials and Licensing

- _____ I understand that Beth Cleveland Maillho is a Pastoral Counselor. She is not licensed by the state of Louisiana, rather she is licensed by the National Christian Counselors Assn.
- _____ Because she is not state licensed, Beth Cleveland Maillho cannot diagnose nor treat mental health conditions and cannot bill insurance companies on your behalf.
- _____ Beth Cleveland Maillho provides her services as an agent of the Church, not the state of Louisiana.

Sessions and Payment

- _____ Sessions typically last 50-60 minutes for individual counseling and 75 minutes for couples' counseling. Contact with clients will be limited to scheduled sessions unless mutually agreed upon for critical situations and appointment scheduling. You and your counselor can discuss how you will handle contact outside of the session.
- _____ Your fee is due at the end of each session to WayMaker Ministries. Acceptable forms of payment are credit card, Zelle, or Venmo. Check or money order must be received by date of appointment.
- _____ If you are unable to attend a session, you must contact your counselor the day before your appointment to avoid being charged a cancellation fee of 50% of your session fee. The cancellation fee is only 50% instead of 100% because problems do arise last minute.
- _____ Although there are generally tremendous benefits associated with pastoral counseling, there are also some risks. These might include feeling "worse" before you feel "better" or not seeing the desired changes from pastoral counseling. The decisions you make as a result of counseling are yours. The counselors of WayMaker are not responsible for any negative outcomes resulting from your decisions.
- _____ WayMaker is not credentialed with any insurance companies. If your insurance policy covers pastoral counseling, you may seek reimbursement for counseling fees on your own.

Confidentiality, Code of Conduct, and Client Rights:

- _____ Everything that is said between you and your counselor is to remain confidential, except in certain instances which include:
- When you sign a written release of information indicating informed consent of such release;
  - When your pastoral counselor believes you might cause physical harm to yourself or another;
  - When abuse to a child, or elderly (65+ years) or dependent adult is disclosed;
  - When a complaint is filed with our professional board;
  - When your file is subpoenaed by a court of law. Your counselor will always assert privileged communication on your behalf and will consult with you when possible before mandated disclosure.
  - In instances when your counselor discusses your case with peers as part of peer supervision, your identity will remain anonymous and the information disclosed will remain confidential.
- _____ As a Clinical Pastoral Counselor licensed by the National Christian Counselors Association, Beth Cleveland Maillho strictly adheres to the Code of Ethical Standards outlined and published by this Association. Because your needs as a client will best be served if the counseling relationship remains professional, your counselor will not be able to accept any gifts or socialize outside of counseling.
- _____ You have the right to confidentiality, except in those cases previously mentioned. You have the right to see the contents of your file or obtain clear information regarding your records. You have the right to actively participate in you counseling plan. You may refuse any services recommended by the counselor and can terminate counseling at any time.

_____ In the event that you are dissatisfied with services for any reason, please let your counselor know. If you still have concerns, you may report your complaints to the National Christian Counselors Association Licensing Board of Examiners, 5260 Paylor Lane, Sarasota, FL 34240, tel. 941-388-6869, ncca.org.

Your responsibilities as a Client and expectations of your Counselor:

_____ You are responsible for keeping and being on time for your appointments. You are responsible for paying for services at the time of each visit. You are expected to be honest, to work hard, and to be open-minded. You are expected to notify your counselor of any other ongoing professional counseling services you are receiving. If you see another professional for counseling, the professional must give your pastoral counselor permission to work with you.

_____ You can expect your counselor to be professional, timely, kind, and honest, to challenge you, and to pursue ongoing continuing education to pursue growth in her own walk with the Lord to best serve you.

_____ For virtual appointments, your counselor expects you to be alone and in a quiet space that is not a moving vehicle.

_____ Termination of Counseling: Counseling may terminate for a number of reasons, including (but not limited to) improvement of the issues for which you originally sought counseling, if you think counseling is not helpful to you, if your counselor thinks you might be better served by working with another counselor or in a different type of setting, or if you are unable to meet your financial responsibilities.

_____ Emergencies: If you are experiencing an emergency during office hours, you should contact your counselor in accordance with your agreement about contact outside of the session. If you feel that you cannot wait for your counselor to return your call, you should go to the emergency room of your nearest hospital and ask for psychiatric services. In addition, you can call the COPE line at 800-749-2673.

_____ The mutually agreed upon fee for these services is $100 for individuals and $200 for couples plus other fees for first appointment assessments unless otherwise arranged.

I have read and initialed the above information.  Yes  No
