

FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN ATHLETES

Gospel Partners and Friends,

This fall has been a reminder of how the Lord opens doors we didn't see coming and invites us to lean in together. As we planned for the year back in August, little did we know that we'd be invited into a unique ministry moment.

This coming spring, Tanner Morgan and I have been invited to lead the spiritual formation component of Deventri Jordan's NFL Combine training at Tria GameFace.

Almost twenty young men will be traveling from all over the country for an 8-10 week intensive training to prepare for the biggest job interview of their lives. This is a rare window of hunger, openness, and space for coaching and discipleship before the noise and pressures of professional life take over.

We have an opportunity to come alongside these men—meeting them where they're at spiritually, investing in them, praying for them, and ministering to them. We'll introduce them to personally reading the Bible and assist in shaping a habit of Bible engagement, model vulnerability and love with Deventri, introduce a variety of key speakers or topics which resonate with their identity, and, if they're not yet Christians, paint a clear picture of who Jesus is and why He truly satisfies the longings they're often chasing through sport. This isn't just a short season; it's an investment that has the potential to echo for years to come.

In it with you,

Athletes will be joining from Universities such as, LSU, Michigan, UW-Madison, Arkansas, Kansas, Washington State, Auburn, and more!

Deventri, Tanner, and me linking arms at a local outreach event this fall.