General Price List

The prices contained in this General Price List are effective October 14, 2026, and are subject to change without notice. At Darby Funeral Home, we understand that making funeral arrangements is a deeply personal and often difficult experience. Our goal is to provide you with clear information, compassionate guidance, and professional service so that you can make decisions that are right for you and your family. You may select only the goods and services that you desire and that are appropriate for your family's needs. Each Service Package will include a Basic Service Fee for the services of the Funeral Director and Staff. In certain circumstances, federal, state, or local laws or other applicable requirements may require the purchase of a particular good or service that you have not specifically requested. When this occurs, we will explain the requirement to you and clearly identify the applicable charge in writing on the statement provided to you.

Our staff is always available to answer your questions, explain your options, and help you understand the costs associated with the arrangements you choose. We believe you should have the information you need to make thoughtful decisions with confidence and without pressure.

Basic Services of the Funeral Director and Staff

Our Basic Services Fee covers the professional services and administrative support provided by our funeral director and staff throughout the funeral arrangement process. These services include, but are not limited to, the following:

- 24-Hour Availability: Darby Funeral Home is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, to respond to your initial request for our services and help when your family needs us.
- Arrangement and Service Coordination: Meeting with the family or responsible party to discuss arrangements, assist with planning, and coordinate the funeral service, memorial service, tribute, or gathering. This includes directing the service, coordinating the funeral procession, assisting with flowers and other details, and providing guidance to family members and guests.
- Personalized Service Planning: Our staff will listen to your family's wishes and provide guidance and recommendations for meaningful ways to personalize and individualize the service in a manner that reflects the unique life, personality, and wishes of your loved one.
- Clerical and Administrative Assistance: Assistance with completing and processing necessary forms and documentation associated with funeral arrangements, including applications and information related to Social Security and Veterans benefits.
- Biographical and Statistical Information: Gathering, preparing, and recording the biographical and statistical information necessary for completing required documentation and creating meaningful service materials.
- Obituary and Tribute Assistance: Preparation and transmission of obituary notices and/or editorial tributes to newspapers and other publications selected by the family.
- Vital Records and Required Documentation: Preparation and filing of the death certificate and assistance in obtaining the necessary permits, authorizations, consents, and assignments required for the funeral and final disposition.
- Initial Care and Shelter: Initial care and shelter of your loved one for the first 24 hours following our receipt of the deceased.
- Coordination with Other Professionals and Facilities: Arranging and coordinating with hospitals, nursing homes, hospice providers, physicians' offices, cemeteries, military organizations, police departments, vault companies, crematory facilities, clergy, celebrants, and other professionals or organizations involved in providing services for your family.
- Administrative and Operational Support: This fee also helps cover the many resources necessary to maintain our facilities and provide professional funeral services, including insurance, utilities, facility maintenance, taxes, legal and accounting services, record keeping, equipment and inventory, and compliance with applicable governmental requirements, including OSHA and ADA regulations.

Detail of Services

Embalming ----- $1,050.00

Embalming is a temporary, respectful process that helps preserve and care for your loved one's appearance, providing an opportunity for family and friends to say goodbye. Although embalming is not required by law, it may be recommended or required depending on the selected services and applicable circumstances. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement which does not require you to pay for it, such as direct cremation or immediate burial.

Other Preparation----- $300.00

This service includes customary cosmetic care, dressing, and casketing of your loved one. If they are not embalmed, it includes washing, disinfecting, and casketing instead.

Other Preparation of Autopsied Individuals ----- $300.00

This service includes the usual and additional cosmetology, dressing and casketing of the body or washing, disinfecting, and casketing of autopsied individuals.

Services of Funeral Director and Staff ----- $2,995.00

(This fee is included in our charges for direct cremation, immediate burials and forwarding remains.) This fee for our basic services and overhead will be added to the total cost of the funeral services that you select. Our professional services charge includes, but is not limited to, consultation with family, clergy, arrangement and direction desired, preparation and filing of necessary notices, authorizations, and consents, and other services and attendance prior to, during and following the funeral including coordination with those providing other portions of the funeral (Cemetery, Crematory, Florist, Vault, Musicians, Etc.)

HOLIDAY SERVICE AVAILABILITY

To allow our staff to be with their families on certain holidays, Darby Funeral Home does not schedule funeral services for the following holidays:

- Christmas Day
 - ❖ Christmas Eve: Funeral services will not be scheduled after 12:00 p.m.
- Thanksgiving Day
- Independence Day
- Memorial Day
- Labor Day
- Easter Sunday
- New Year's Day

We understand that every family's circumstances are unique, and we will make every effort to assist families with their arrangements while honoring these holiday scheduling limitations.
