

WOOD COUNTY BOARD OF DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES

Scan Marker Max

Scanmarker Max is a portable, standalone digital reading and translation pen designed to help users quickly convert printed text into spoken, translated, or editable digital content without needing a separate computer or phone. It has built-in features like line-by-line reading aloud, multilingual translation, an English dictionary with audio definitions, and voice translation modes. The Max also has a secure Exam Mode that lets administrators restrict certain features during test situations.
