Come from Away @ the Croswell

What: Come From Away," written by Irene Sankoff and David Hein, is based on real events in Gander, Newfoundland, during the week following the September 11, 2001 attacks. When U.S. airspace was closed, 38 planes carrying nearly 7,000 passengers were diverted to Gander International Airport, nearly doubling the town's population. The musical portrays both the townspeople and the stranded travelers, blending real-life stories with some composite characters to capture the emotional and logistical challenges of the situation
