PROTECTING GOD'S CHILDREN DID YOU KNOW?

Who is a mandated reporter?

A mandated reporter is someone who is required to report suspected or disclosed cases of abuse to child protective services or law enforcement including a wide range of persons from teachers, educators, coaches, to school and parish staff, and clergy. The mandated report may involve concerns about possible abuse or neglect in the child's home or by a family member. At a school or parish, if the person making a report believes that child abuse or neglect is the case then the person should make the report to the local law enforcement agency, which has the resources and ability to intervene immediately if needed. The Archdiocese of Los Angeles urges all in our church to speak up to the appropriate authorities if any form of child abuse is suspected. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "The Facts about Mandated and Ethical Reporting" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know and visit <https://lacatholics.org/>

PROTEGIENDO A LOS NIÑOS DE DIOS ¿SABIA USTED?

¿Quién es un informante obligatorio?

Los informantes obligatorios incluyen a maestros, educadores, entrenadores, y empleados de escuelas y miembros del clero. Un informe obligatorio puede incluir inquietudes sobre posibles abusos o negligencia en el hogar del niño o por parte de un miembro de la familia. En una escuela o parroquia, si la persona que realiza la denuncia cree que se trata de un caso de abuso o negligencia infantil, debe informar a la policía local que tiene los recursos y la capacidad para intervenir de forma inmediata si es necesario. La Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles urge a todos en nuestra iglesia a hablar con las autoridades correspondientes si se sospecha alguna forma de abuso infantil. Para más información sobre los informantes obligatorios lea el artículo en inglés de VIRTUS® "The Facts about Mandated and Ethical Reporting" (Los hechos sobre Informes obligatorios y éticos) en lacatholics.org/did-you-know o visite <https://lacatholics.org/>

*Reflection from Fr. Freddie Pinuela, MJGospel: Luke 18:9-14 — “The Pharisee and the Tax Collector”

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable to those who were convinced of their own righteousness and looked down on others. Two men go up to the temple to pray. One is a Pharisee, respected and religious. The other is a tax collector, despised and seen as a sinner.

The Pharisee prays by listing his good deeds—and he makes sure to thank God that he's not like that tax collector. But the tax collector stands far off, won't even raise his eyes to heaven, and simply says, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner."

And Jesus delivers the shock: It's the tax collector who goes home justified—not the Pharisee. Why?

Because the tax collector knows the truth about himself. He comes to God with humility, not excuses. He trusts not in his goodness, but in God's mercy. The Pharisee may have done good things, but his pride closed his heart. He compared himself to others, not to God. This parable speaks to all of us.

It's easy to fall into the habit of comparing ourselves to others—to think, "At least I'm not like them." But that's not the way of the Gospel. God is not interested in performances; He is drawn to a humble heart. Scripture says, "The Lord is close to the brokenhearted" (Psalm 34:18). So, what kind of prayer does God hear?

Not the one full of pride, but the one full of truth. A prayer that begins, "Lord, have mercy on me" is a prayer that touches heaven. Let's ask God today to give us that kind of humility. Not to pretend we're worse than we are—but to be honest, to be real, and to let His mercy transform us.

As Jesus said: "Everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." Amen.

*Reflexión del Padre Freddie Pinuela, MJEvangelio: Lucas 18:9-14 "El Fariseo y el Recaudador de Impuestos"

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús cuenta una parábola a aquellos que estaban convencidos de su propia justicia y despreciaban a los demás. Dos hombres suben al templo a orar. Uno es un fariseo, respetado y religioso. El otro es un recaudador de impuestos, despreciado y considerado un pecador.

El fariseo ora enumerando sus buenas obras—y se asegura de dar gracias a Dios porque no es como ese recaudador de impuestos. Pero el recaudador de impuestos se queda a lo lejos, ni siquiera levanta la vista al cielo, y simplemente dice: "Dios, ten misericordia de mí, pecador."

Y Jesús da la sorpresa: Es el recaudador de impuestos quien vuelve a casa justificado—no el fariseo. ¿Por qué?

Porque el recaudador de impuestos conoce la verdad sobre sí mismo. Se acerca a Dios con humildad, sin excusas. No confía en su bondad, sino en la misericordia de Dios. El fariseo puede haber hecho cosas buenas, pero su orgullo cerró su corazón. Se comparó con los demás, no con Dios. Esta parábola nos habla a todos.

Es fácil caer en el hábito de compararnos con los demás, de pensar: "Al menos no soy como ellos". Pero ese no es el camino del Evangelio. A Dios no le interesan las actuaciones; Se siente atraído por un corazón humilde. Las Escrituras dicen: "El Señor está cerca de los quebrantados de corazón" (Salmo 34:18). Entonces, ¿qué tipo de oración escucha Dios?

No el que está lleno de orgullo, sino el que está lleno de verdad. Una oración que comienza: "Señor, ten piedad de mí" es una oración que toca el cielo. Pidámosle a Dios hoy que nos dé ese tipo de humildad. No fingir que somos peores de lo que somos, sino ser honestos, ser reales y dejar que Su misericordia nos transforme.

Como dijo Jesús: "Todo el que se enaltece será humillado, pero el que se humilla será enaltecido". Amen
