Consumer Loan Notice:

Starting on October 10, if you do not have funds available in the designated payment account for your consumer loan, we will transfer available funds from any share accounts linked for overdraft transfers to make your payment.* Consumer loan payments will only be applied if the full payment amount can be collected. Regular overdraft transfer fees apply.

*First mortgages are not included in this service. Express mortgages are included in this service. Lines of credit will not be automatically advanced to cover other consumer loan payments.

Telephone us at 608-243-5000/800-236-5560 or write us at PO Box 8046, Madison, WI 53708, as soon as you can, if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first statement on which the error or problem appeared.

- If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at: Summit Credit Union PO Box 8046, Madison, WI 53708. You may also contact us on the web at summitcreditunion.com. In your letter, give us the following information:

- 1) Account information: Your name and account number
- 2) Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error
- 3) Description of the Problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake. You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement. You must notify us of any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question. While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:
 - 1) We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
 - 2) The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
 - 3) While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
 - 4) We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

If we take more than 10 business days to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU THINK YOU FIND A MISTAKE ON YOUR LOAN STATEMENT

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at: Summit Credit Union PO Box 8046, Madison, WI 53708. You may also contact us on the web at summitcreditunion.com. In your letter, give us the following information:

- 1) Account information: Your name and account number
- 2) Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error
- 3) Description of the Problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake. You must contact us within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement. You must notify us of any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question. While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, the following are true:
 - 1) We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
 - 2) The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount. But, if we determine that we made a mistake, you will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
 - 3) While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
 - 4) We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.
