Quem in mundi prétium

Fructus ventris generósi
Rex effúdit géntium.
Nobis datus, nobis natus
Ex intácta Vírgine,
Et in mundo conversátus,
Sparsó verbi sém
Sui moras incolátus
Miro clausit órđine.

In supremæ nocte coenæ
Recumbens cum frátribus,
Observata lege plene
Cibis in legálibus,

Cibum turbæ duodenæ
Se dat súis mánibus.
Genitori Genitóque,
Laus et iubilátio;
Salus, honor, virtus quoque,
Sit et benedíctio;

Tell, tongue, the mystery of the glorious Body
and of the precious Blood, which, for the price of the world,

the fruit of a noble Womb,
the King of the Nations poured forth.
Given to us, born for us,
from the untouched Virgin,
and dwelt in the world
after the seed of the Word had been scattered.
His inhabiting ended the delays with wonderful order.

On the night of the Last Supper,
reclining with His brethren,
once the Law had been fully observed with the prescribed foods,

as food to the crowd of Twelve
He gives Himself with His hands.
To the Begetter and the Begotten be praise and jubilation, greeting, honour, strength also and blessing.

Three Holy Days Unfold Us Now

Rockingham

Wonder, Love, and Praise #731

Three holy days enfold us now
in washing feet and breaking bread, in cross and font and life renewed:
in Christ, God's firstborn from the dead.

The myst'ry hid from ages past is here revealed in word and sign,
for Jesus' story is our own:
new life through death is God's design.

Christ lifted high upon the tree,
before you every knee shall bend and every tongue in praise proclaim:
'You are the Lord of all. Amen.'

CELEBRANT

Bless the Lord who forgives all our sins.

PEOPLE

His mercy endures for ever.

The Celebrant says

Jesus said, "The first commandment is this: Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is the only Lord. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: Love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these." Mark 12:29-31

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Minister and People together say

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Priest stands and says

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The following is sung, all standing

COLLECT OF THE DAY

CELEBRANT      The Lord be with you.
PEOPLE          And also with you.
CELEBRANT      Let us pray.

Almighty Father, whose dear Son, on the night before he suffered, instituted the Sacrament of his Body and Blood: Mercifully grant that we may receive it thankfully in remembrance of Jesus Christ our Lord, who in these holy mysteries gives us a pledge of eternal life; and who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

Exodus 12:1-4, 11-14

All sit.

A Reading from the book of Exodus.

The Lord said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: This month shall mark for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you. Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth of this month they are to take a lamb for each family, a lamb for each household. If a household is too small for a whole lamb, it shall join its closest neighbor in obtaining one; the lamb shall be divided in proportion to the number of people who eat of it.

This is how you shall eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it hurriedly. It is the passover of the Lord. For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both human beings and animals; on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the Lord. The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live: when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

This day shall be a day of remembrance for you. You shall celebrate it as a festival to the Lord; throughout your generations you shall observe it as a perpetual ordinance.

in the midst of you, O Jerusalem.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

A Reading from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians.

I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink

PRIEST*The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.*PEOPLE*Glory to you, Lord Christ.

<sup>1</sup>Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. <sup>2</sup>The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper <sup>3</sup>Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God, <sup>4</sup>got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself. <sup>5</sup>Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him. <sup>6</sup>He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?" <sup>7</sup>Jesus answered, "You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand." <sup>8</sup>Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no share with me." <sup>9</sup>Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!" <sup>10</sup>Jesus said to him, "One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you." <sup>11</sup>For he knew who was to betray him; for this reason he said, "Not all of you are clean."

<sup>12</sup>After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? <sup>13</sup>You call me Teacher and Lord—and you are right, for that is what I am. <sup>14</sup>So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. <sup>15</sup>For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. <sup>16</sup>Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them. <sup>17</sup>If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them."

<sup>31b</sup>"Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. <sup>32</sup>If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. <sup>33</sup>Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.' <sup>34</sup>I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. <sup>35</sup>By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

THE WASHING OF THE FEET

The Officiant says,

Jesus said, “So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them. If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.”

The congregation may come to the chapel as the ushers direct. Please be prepared to wash the feet of the person in front of you in line or you may come forward with a friend or family member and wash each other’s feet. Or, you may remain seated in the pew in silent reflection and prayer.

If you are unable to move to the level of the chapel, please tell an usher and the clergy will come to you for the washing of feet.

Domine Tu Mihi Lavas Pedes

José Mauricio Nunes Garcia (1767-1830)

Domine tu mihi lavas pedes?
Respondit Iesus et dixit ei:
Si non laveris tibi pedes, non habebis
partem mecum.

Lord, dost thou wash my feet?
Jesus answered and said to him:
If I wash thee not, thou shalt have no part with me.

ANTHEM*Ubi Caritas*Plainchant

Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est.
 Congregavit nos in unum Christi amor.
 Exsulemus, et in ipso jucundemur.
 Timeamus, et amemus Deum vivum.
 Et ex corde diligamus nos sincero.

Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est.
 Simul ergo cum in unum congregamur:
 Ne nos mente dividamur, caveamus.
 Cessent jurgia maligna, cessent lites.
 Et in medio nostri sit Christus Deus.

Ubi caritas et amor, Deus ibi est.
 Simul quoque cum beatis videamus.
 Glorianter vultum tuum, Christe Deus:
 Gaudium, quod est immensum, atque
 probum:
 Saecula per infinita saeculorum. Amen.

Where charity and love are, God is there.
 Christ's love has gathered us into one.
 Let us exult, and be joyful in Him.
 Let us fear and love the living God.
 And love one another with sincere hearts.

Where charity and love are, God is there.
 Together, then, when as one we are gathered:
 Lest we be in mind divided, let us beware.
 Let malicious quarrels and strife cease.
 And may Christ our God be in our midst.

Where charity and love are, God is there.
 Together also with the blessed may we also See your face in Glory, O Christ our God:
 Joy that is boundless and right:
 Unto the ages through infinite ages. Amen.

My beloved, my beloved
 What state are you in?
 He who sees you, for you would cry
 You are the one and only sacrifice

My beloved,
What blame have the nations put upon you?
They melted you with wounds,
To which no healing would do

When in the dark orchard at night
The God Creator kneeled and prayed Life was praying with the One
Who gave life hope and prayer

The olive trees are crying
As the lips of men quiver
My beloved how will you go?
Has loyalty gone forever?

My beloved, my beloved
What state are you in?
He who sees you, for you would cry
You are the one and only sacrifice

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Form III

The Leader and People pray responsively

Father, we pray for your holy Catholic Church;
That we all may be one.

Grant that every member of the Church may truly and humbly serve you;
That your Name may be glorified by all people.

We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons;
That they may be faithful ministers of your Word and Sacraments.

We pray for all who govern and hold authority in the nations of the world;
That there may be justice and peace on the earth.

Give us grace to do your will in all that we undertake;
That our works may find favor in your sight.

Have compassion on those who suffer from any grief or trouble;
That they may be delivered from their distress.

ANTHEM

Ave verum

Edward Elgar

Text: Anonymous, 14th century

Ave verum corpus natum ex Maria Virgine,
Vere passum, immolatum in cruce pro homine.
Cujus latus perforatum vero fluxit et sanguine;
Esto nobis prægustatum mortis in examine.
O clemens, O pie, O dulcis Jesu, Fili Mariae.

Hail, true Body, born of the Virgin Mary, who having truly suffered, was sacrificed on the cross for mankind.
Whose pierced side flowed with (water and) blood,
May it be for us a foretaste (of the Heavenly banquet) in the trial of death.
O gentle, O merciful, O sweet Jesus, son of Mary.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

Eucharistic Prayer A

The people stand as they are able.

CELEBRANT The Lord be with you.

PEOPLE And also with you.

CELEBRANT Lift up your hearts.

PEOPLE We lift them to the Lord.

CELEBRANT Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

PEOPLE It is right to give him thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

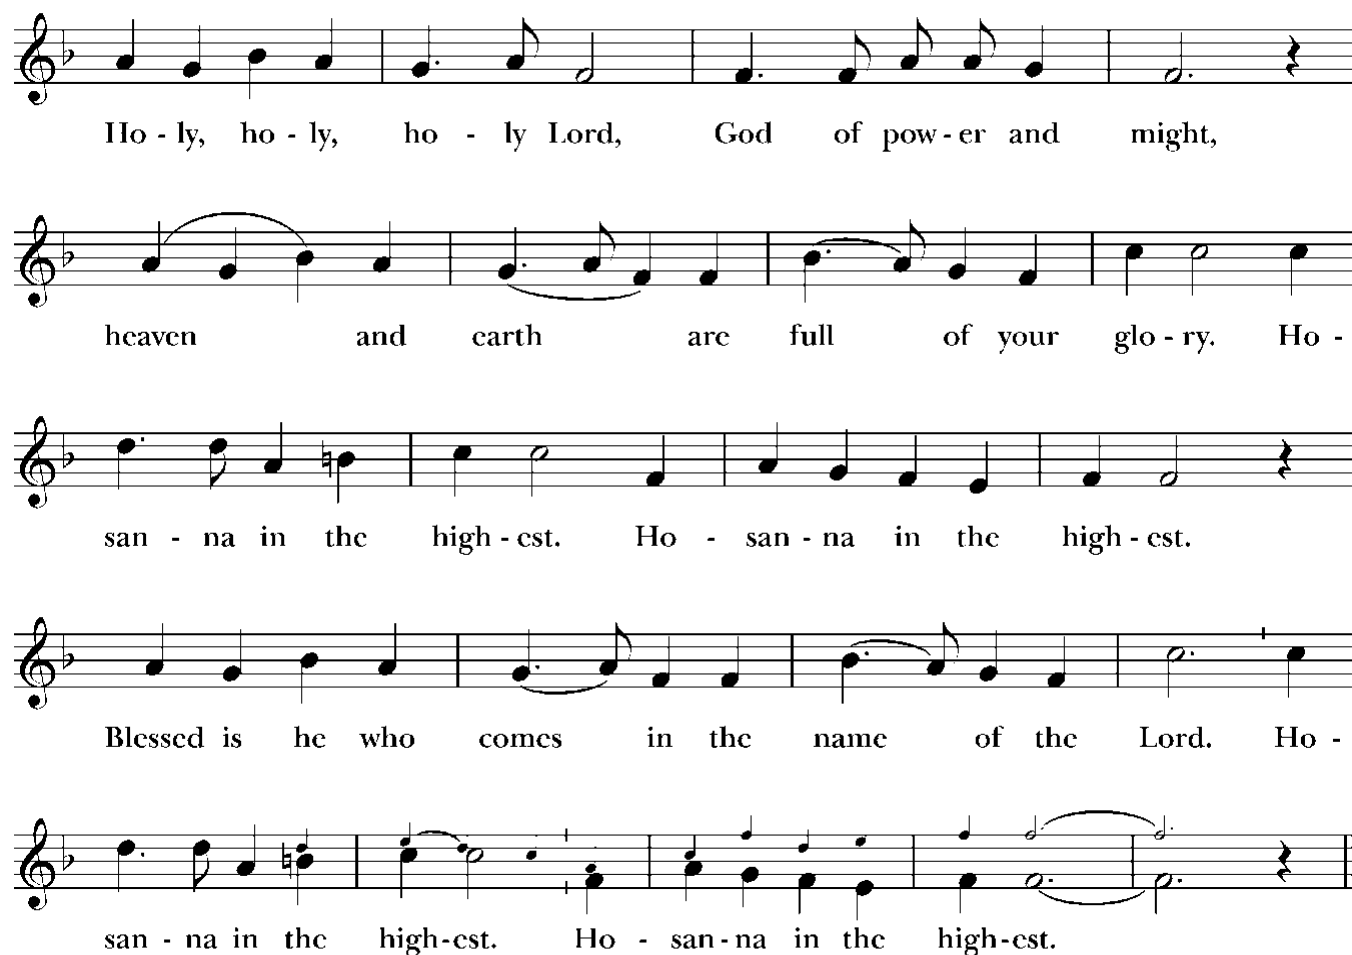

Through Jesus Christ our Lord. For our sins he was lifted high upon the cross, that he might draw the whole world to himself; and, by his suffering and death, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who put their trust in him.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS AND BENEDICTUS

Richard Proulx

The Hymnal 1982 #S-125

The musical score is written on five staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with lyrics written below each staff. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The lyrics are: 'Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.' The score ends with a double bar line.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The people stand or kneel as they are able.

The Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

The Celebrant then continues

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us,
we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD AND FRACTION ANTHEM

CELEBRANT We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.

PEOPLE We who are many are one body,
for we all share in the one bread.

THE COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

All who seek Christ are invited to receive the bread and wine standing or kneeling at the altar rail. If you choose not to receive the wine, let the server know that you want only the bread by placing one hand over your heart (receiving only the bread is full communion). If you prefer not to take communion, you may come forward for a blessing, crossing your arms over your chest, or not come forward at all; no one will judge you.

To receive the wine by intinction, please come to the altar rail. Extend your hands, palms flat, and the bread will be placed there for you to dip the bread into the wine.

To receive the wine by sipping from the chalice, please also come to the altar rail, consume the bread, then please help the Lay Eucharistic Minister guide the chalice to your lips to sip.

Please wait for an usher to release you from your pew to come forward. Gluten-free wafers are available upon request.

STRIPPING OF THE ALTAR

All kneel in silence as they are able.

PSALM 22

Deus, Deus meus

The Reader reads the psalm while the sanctuary is prepared and the altar is stripped

- <sup>1</sup> My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? *
and are so far from my cry and from the words of my distress?
- <sup>2</sup> O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer; *
by night as well, but I find no rest.
- <sup>3</sup> Yet you are the Holy One, *
enthroned upon the praises of Israel.
- <sup>4</sup> Our forefathers put their trust in you; *
they trusted, and you delivered them.
- <sup>5</sup> They cried out to you and were delivered; *
they trusted in you and were not put to shame.
- <sup>6</sup> But as for me, I am a worm and no man, *
scorned by all and despised by the people.
- <sup>7</sup> All who see me laugh me to scorn; *
they curl their lips and wag their heads, saying,
- <sup>8</sup> “He trusted in the Lord; let him deliver him; * let him rescue him, if he delights in him.”
- <sup>9</sup> Yet you are he who took me out of the womb, * and kept me safe upon my mother’s breast.
- <sup>10</sup> I have been entrusted to you ever since I was born; *
you were my God when I was still in my mother’s womb.
- <sup>11</sup> Be not far from me, for trouble is near, *
and there is none to help.
- <sup>12</sup> Many young bulls encircle me; *
strong bulls of Bashan surround me.
- <sup>13</sup> They open wide their jaws at me, *
like a ravening and a roaring lion.

- <sup>14</sup> I am poured out like water;
all my bones are out of joint; *
my heart within my breast is melting wax.
- <sup>15</sup> My mouth is dried out like a pot-sherd;
my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; *
and you have laid me in the dust of the grave.
- <sup>16</sup> Packs of dogs close me in,
and gangs of evildoers circle around me; *
they pierce my hands and my feet;
I can count all my bones.
- <sup>17</sup> They stare and gloat over me; *
they divide my garments among them;
they cast lots for my clothing.
- <sup>18</sup> Be not far away, O Lord; *
you are my strength; hasten to help me.
- <sup>19</sup> Save me from the sword, *
my life from the power of the dog.
- <sup>20</sup> Save me from the lion's mouth, *
my wretched body from the horns of wild bulls.
- <sup>21</sup> I will declare your Name to my brethren; * in the midst of the congregation I will praise you.
- <sup>22</sup> Praise the Lord, you that fear him; *
stand in awe of him, O offspring of Israel;
all you of Jacob's line, give glory.
- <sup>23</sup> For he does not despise nor abhor the poor in their poverty;
neither does he hide his face from them; *
but when they cry to him he hears them.
- <sup>24</sup> My praise is of him in the great assembly; *
I will perform my vows in the presence of those who worship him.

- <sup>25</sup> The poor shall eat and be satisfied, and those who seek the Lord shall praise him: * “May your heart live for ever!”
- <sup>26</sup> All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord, *
and all the families of the nations shall bow before him.
- <sup>27</sup> For kingship belongs to the Lord; *
he rules over the nations.
- <sup>28</sup> To him alone all who sleep in the earth bow down in worship; *
all who go down to the dust fall before him.
- <sup>29</sup> My soul shall live for him;
my descendants shall serve him; *
they shall be known as the Lord’s for ever.
- <sup>30</sup> They shall come and make known to a people yet unborn *
the saving deeds that he has done.

Silent departure. The church will remain open for a period of prayer.

Hearing Loop assistance is available inside this building. Set hearing aid on “T” (telecoil) setting. Headsets are also available in both the narthex and Miller Hall that will allow access to the Hearing Loop. Please see an usher for help.

ABOUT THE SOLEMN STRIPPING OF THE ALTAR

This ritual expresses symbolically the starkness and the reality of Jesus’ death. He himself was stripped – of his freedom, of his personal dignity, of his clothing, and, finally, of his life. The choir and congregation remain kneeling following the postcommunion prayer and begin to sing the final hymn, “Go to Dark Gethsemane” (The Hymnal 1982 #171). When the hymn ends, Psalm 22, the Passion Psalm (page 610 in The Book of Common Prayer), is read. As it is read, the clergy wash the altar – again, a symbolic act expressing the ancient ritual of washing the body of one who has died. The clergy will then exit to the side. The congregation leaves without a dismissal, and in complete silence.

HEARING THE WORD MAUNDY THURSDAY

On Thursday, April 17, 2025, we welcome Abby Glass to preach at our Maundy Thursday service. We share Abby with the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd as our Children, Youth, and Family Minister. Please join us in welcoming Abby!

WELCOME HUNTER HARRIS

Hunter Harris is a violist/violinist who specializes in early and contemporary music. His music experience began at an early age with piano lessons. In 2000, he decided viola was the instrument for him. Attaining a Bachelor of Music from the University of South Carolina, he specialized in music education where he gained teaching experience through the University of South Carolina String Project, and student teaching. In graduate school at the California Institute of the Arts, through the Community Arts Partnership, Hunter gained valuable teaching experience to better serve the music community. His experience as a violist/violinist has allowed him to collaborate and perform with notable musicians such as: Erika Duke-Kirkpatrick, Blue Cross NC seeks your feedback regarding your recent Medicare Welcome experience Lorenz Gamma, Malcolm Goldstein, Susan Allen, Tisha Mabee, Allan Vogel, Mark Menzies, and Wolfgang von Schweinitz. An advocate for early music, he has immersed himself into the world of historical performance practice by studying baroque violin and viola with notable baroque violinist, Susan Feldman. Not limited to early music, he also advocates for works by modern and contemporary composers, including Tigran Mansurian, Luciano Berio, György Kurtág, Eitan Steinberg, Betty Olivero, Toshio Hosokawa, and Mauricio Kagel. In 2013, he recorded at Capitol Records, in Hollywood, for the California Institute of the Arts Jazz CD, produced by David Roitstein. Also in 2013, he performed with Mexican avant-garde theater company Teatros de Ciertos Habitantes, at Radar L.A. 2013, an international festival of contemporary theater. His teachers have included Constance Gee, Mark Menzies, Susan Feldman, and Tish Oney. He currently performs with the North Carolina Baroque Orchestra and may also be found in various lofts and balconies on Sunday mornings singing countertenor. His other interests include Renaissance mensural notation, Cantare super librum (a form of Renaissance vocal improvisation), as well as providing his cats a life of recreation and leisure.

SHARE OUR EASTER JOY WITH OTHERS

Good Friday Offering

The Good Friday Offering, established in 1922 by The Episcopal Church, supports the ministries of the four dioceses of the Province of Jerusalem and the Middle East. Rooted in the aftermath of World War I, it focuses on pastoral care, education, and healthcare. Your generous donations help strengthen the Christian presence in the Holy Land, promoting peace and understanding. Please make checks payable to St. Philip's Church with "Good Friday Offering" on the memo line; click here to make a donation online and to read Presiding Bishop Sean Rowe's Good Friday Offering Letter.

St. Philip's Easter Offering

In keeping with the tradition of St. Philip's to designate the Easter offerings for specific charitable uses, the offering collected at our Easter services will be given to support the Hunger Coalition of Transylvania County. Their mission is to combat hunger, increase whole, healthy food access and empower healthier lifestyles through nutritional education. Please give as generously as you can. Designate "Easter Offering" on the memo line or envelope.
