ABOUT CAMP HENRY & BOUND FOR GLORY

Camp Henry provides an engaging experience of the Living God in an environment of adventure, imagination and love. While we are rooted in the Christian faith, ALL are welcome! And when we say ALL, we mean that regardless of color, belief, gender identity, and sexual orientation, all are loved and safe at Camp Henry.

Bound for Glory Camp is a FREE Christian literacy and adventure camp for qualifying youth ages 9-12 of Transylvania County. The focus is to improve the literacy skills of struggling readers and provide opportunities for them to discover new talents in a Christian environment.

A Fresh Look: The Visual History of St. Philip's

Join us for a closer look at beautiful art and objects that adorn our sanctuary and halls. We see them often, but do we really appreciate them? SATURDAY, AUGUST 29

The Rev. Elise Johnstone, a descendant of one of the founding families of the Episcopal Church in Transylvania County, is Rector of St. John the Baptist Episcopal Church in Seattle, WA. Join us for a conversation with her and parishioner Craig Gralley, author of the forthcoming book Echoes of Eden in Western North Carolina: The Johnstone Settlement, 1852-1864. Elise will also preach and teach Sunday, August 30.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 30
