CHARAS TEMPLE HASH BALLS

- • - • - • 200 • 350

Charas Temple Hash Balls are a form of hashish that have been appreciated and cultivated in Nepal and the surrounding regions for thousands and thousands of years. The deep aroma of Charas Temple Hash Balls are known for their striking earthy base, with notes of a dry cedar-like woodiness and a mellow, creamy undertones.

AFGHANI HASH

15 • 35 • 60 • 110 • 190

Afghani hash is traditionally produced throughout Afghanistan. In fact, hashish is produced practically everywhere in and around Afghanistan. This is accomplished by hand pressing cannabis dry sift with the addition of a small quantity of water or tea. Afghanis hash is pressed by hand. It is worked until becoming highly elastic. A rich flavor and strong aromatic smell will be the result. In Afghanistan, the product is then stored in the form of 100mg bricks or hash balls.

GRAND FINALE GOLD

15 • 35 • 60 • 110 • 190

This beautiful smooth and tasty hash burns nicely with a smooth finish on the tongue and will leave you nicely medicated, enough to provide relief for your symptoms. Produced using high quality strain, making it uplifting and stimulating, yet still maintaining the hashish body buzz we expect. The Grand Finale Gold Hash is firm and dark in colour, and has a soft, sweet flavour and aroma.
