REFLECTION

FATHER PAUL TURNER

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Romans 8:18-23

Suffering Nothing

The older we get, the more we groan. Muscles ache. Memory fades. Taste buds fail. Hearing diminishes. Eyesight darkens. Stature bends. Our physical health decays, and suffering intensifies. Growing old, as they say, is not for wimps.

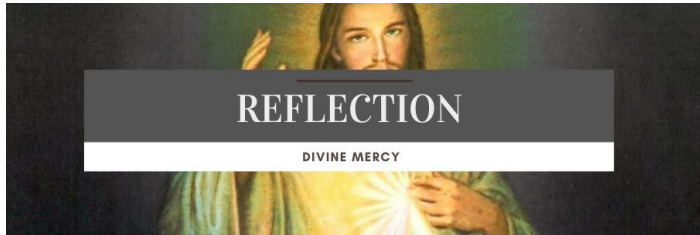

For many people, aging might be cause for despair. But for Christians, it is just another aspect of the imperfections of life. We have grown accustomed to the disappointments of this life. They are nothing compared with the promise of salvation. We put up with the inconveniences we experience because we believe in the joy that lies ahead.

St. Paul writes to the Romans, “I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us.”

Paul believed in God’s promise, that there was more ahead for him after he died. He believed that promise extended to all the faithful, and indeed to all creation. Creation itself has been groaning, awaiting a more perfect life. Perfection comes to all the world through Christ.

We may be growing older, but we are always children—God’s children. We may be heading towards death, but we are really heading towards birth—birth to a new kind of life. The sufferings of today are as nothing. We are groaning in expectation of a joy that is to come.

REFLECTION

DIVINE MERCY

The Demands of the Lord

Pride can consume us. When it does, all we think about is if the Lord asks you to do something, do you have an option? You do insofar as you can say “No.” And this is a sin. But if you have chosen to follow Christ and your goal is Heaven, then it’s proper to say that we are obliged to do whatever the Lord asks of us. His requests are certain and immovable commands of Love. He will not budge. He will not change. This is only hard to accept if we are stubborn and unwilling to submit to Him. But if we understand the nature of His Will, as described above, then we should be overjoyed when we hear His crisp clear voice speaking to us with commands of Love. We should see His Will and His Law as the perfect answer to every problem and every need we have in life. The demands of the Lord are demands we must give in to. And one of those demands is that He desires that we all enter into and distribute His abundant Mercy (See Diary #998).

Reflect upon the demand from our Lord that you dispense His Mercy. He not only invites you to do so, it is His immovable and irrevocable perfect Will. He will never change His Mind. There is only one option you have. You must concede to be a missionary of His Divine Mercy if you choose His Will for your life. Are you willing to accept this calling? Are you willing to say “Yes?” Ponder this question today and make a choice that reflects the certainty of God’s perfect Will. Say “Yes” to our Lord and you will not regret it.

Lord, Your Will is perfect and the delight of my soul. I thank You for inviting and obliging me to be an instrument of Your Divine Mercy in the world. May I embrace this calling with zeal, love and devotion. Use me, dear Lord, as You will And I thank You for the incredible honor of serving You. Jesus, I trust in You.

FR. VOGEL'S COLUMN

PASTOR

Dear Friends in Christ,

This weekend we hear of the parable of the sower, with the punch line of sowing the seed on good, rich soil, and how it produces so much fruit. The analogy is the soul being the soil. What kind of soil is our soul?

We all by default want to say that we have the rich soil. Who doesn’t, right? The truth is, depending on the moment, day, month, etc. the soil of our soul changes throughout the whole spectrum: seed on the path; seed on rocky ground; seed on thorns; seed on rich soil.

Our lifelong and daily task is to have our souls have the quality of the rich soil 24/7. When life is easy and when life is hard. When we had a great night’s rest or not.

For us to have this rich soil as the primary soil in our souls, we must immerse ourselves with God. We must have a daily prayer life. We must frequent the Sacraments of the Church. We must be striving to grow in the virtues. We must be relying on God’s Grace. We must be striving to deepen our relationship with God in every facet of our life.

How would you describe the soil of your soul right now? What can you do to help improve the quality of your soul’s soil right now?

In Christo et Maria,

Father Vogel

APPLICATIONS OPEN FOR PERMANENT DIACONATE

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is beginning its inquiry phase for those men who are interested in a possible vocation to the diaconate. The application process is open, and the Office of the Permanent Diaconate will be accepting applications now through September 30, 2026. Interviews for qualified applicants will occur in Fall 2026 with the intention of beginning the next deacon formation class in January 2027.

The formation period is a time of discernment. If you would like to find out more information about serving the church as a deacon, please go to the diocesan website where you can view the requirements and fill out an online inquiry form. Application packets will be sent to qualified applicants or can be picked up at the diocese office. Questions? Please contact Deacon Jim Hall at diaconateoffice@diocesekcsj.org or call 816.714.2302.

Candidacy of Holy Orders Mass

On July 4, seminarians Braeden Connelly, Ezra Mwaura, Caleb Stoner, and Weston Warner were admitted to Candidacy of Holy Orders, a necessary step along the way as they continue to respond to the Lord's call in their lives. These four men will be beginning graduate studies in a School of Theology this Fall.

ANNUAL Garage SALE

July 23-25

Please consider signing up to help work on Thursday and Saturday during the sale. Sign up sheets are on the oak table.

“ 546 Jesus' invitation to enter his kingdom comes in the form of parables, a characteristic feature of his teaching. Through his parables he invites people to the feast of the kingdom, but he also asks for a radical choice: to gain the kingdom, one must give everything. Words are not enough, deeds are required. The parables are like mirrors for man: will he be hard soil or good earth for the word? What use has he made of the talents he has received? Jesus and the presence of the kingdom in this world are secretly at the heart of the parables. One must enter the kingdom, that is, become a disciple of Christ, in order to “know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven”. For those who stay “outside”, everything remains enigmatic. ”
