All Saints
1 John 3:1-3

Not Really Place, Not Really Time

We believe in life after death, but we cannot put into words what it will be like. Every time we try, our descriptions come up short.

If we say, "It will be a special place," we use an inaccurate word: place. Heaven will be more than a place. It is not a place like a planet or star, for that would make it finite. It is infinite, not located.

If we say, "It will be a special time," we use an inaccurate word: time. God lies beyond all time. Time has limits, but God is infinite.

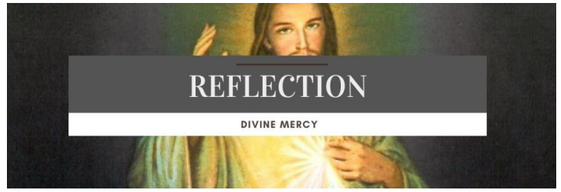

Eternal life lies beyond what we can describe. Even Saint John struggled with the right words: "We are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is."

John chose other descriptive words like "children" and "being like God." In eternity we will have a special relationship with our creator. It will be wonderful, but it is hard to describe more.

Today is All Saints Day. We celebrate all the saints who have passed beyond the doors of death and have become more than God's children. They are like the God they see.

We learn from their example in life. We aim to share their glory in heaven. That is the inheritance of the children of God.

Revealing the Secrets of Your Soul

It is actually quite consoling to have someone with whom you can reveal the depths of your soul. This sort of confidant is a great blessing when absolute confidentiality, mercy and understanding are offered. Speaking even of your sins without hesitation can bring much healing when the person with whom we share these things responds with perfect love and is able to offer you the Mercy of God. We all need such a confidant. But in truth we do! We have the priest, waiting for us in the glorious Sacrament of Reconciliation. His confidentiality is certain, his compassion and mercy is offered and the forgiveness and Mercy of God is poured forth upon the deepest and darkest secrets in your heart. Do not hesitate and do not delay in going to Confession. You need this gift from our Lord and He will bless you with an abundance of His Mercy through it (See Diary #1464).

Reflect honestly upon the deepest and "darkest" sin in your heart. What is it that you fear revealing the most? The Lord desperately desires to enter into that darkness and bring the healing balm of His light and Mercy. Do let Him in through the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The power of this Sacrament is unmatched and is exactly what you need to begin your healing and to be set free from your burdens. Do not fear it and do not put it off. Make an act of faith today in this glorious Sacrament and you will be amazed at the effect that it has on your life.

Lord, please give me courage to confess my sins in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Please also give me the wisdom to know that this is among Your greatest gifts. In this Sacrament I encounter Your Mercy to the greatest degree. Thank You, dear Lord, for this priceless gift. Jesus, I trust in You.

(This free reflection can be found at: https://divinemercy.life/2026/10/26/reflection-300-revealing-the-secrets-of-your-soul-2/)

Dear Friends in Christ,

All Saints Day falls on a Sunday this year, which means that this normal Holy Day of Obligation is fulfilled at the same time for us all as we attend our normal Mass for the weekend.

As we begin November this Sunday (where did October go???), we begin the month to pray for the Poor Souls in Purgatory. You should be receiving soon a card with an awesome litany, the "Litany for the Poor Souls in Purgatory." Please pray this litany everyday during November. I would suggest to offer it up for the following intention each time: "For a Poor Soul in Purgatory that all they need is the Litany for the Poor Souls in Purgatory to be released from Purgatory and enter into the glory of Heaven today." Then pray the litany.

My friends, let's think of other things we can offer up during November to help the Poor Souls in Purgatory: your drive to work that you do not enjoy; not listening to anything on your drives during November; assign a particular day of the week that you fast from something of your choosing (i.e. coffee, breakfast, TV, etc.), etc.

Let's help these Poor Souls in Purgatory enter into Heaven, my friends, and remember, if we help them enter into Heaven, they will pray for us from Heaven for all the days of our life until we die for all of our needs and petitions, and when we die and if we enter into Purgatory, they will continue to pray for us from Heaven to get out of Purgatory faster since we helped them get out of Purgatory faster. It's a complete win-win situation. Let's do this.

In Christo et Maria,

Father Vogel

Catechism of the Catholic Church

775 "The Church, in Christ, is like a sacrament - a sign and instrument, that is, of communion with God and of unity among all men." The Church's first purpose is to be the sacrament of the inner union of men with God. Because men's communion with one another is rooted in that union with God, the Church is also the sacrament of the unity of the human race. In her, this unity is already begun, since she gathers men "from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and tongues"; at the same time, the Church is the "sign and instrument" of the full realization of the unity yet to come.
