REFLECTION

FATHER PAUL TURNER

Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Romans 13:8-10

Laying Down the Law

As institutions age, their laws multiply. As countries grow older, the laws of nation, state, and city grow ever more complex. It is hard to know them all. We hire lawyers to study laws for us.

The laws of the church are also complex. They are collected in the code of canon law, which is also hard to absorb. We need church lawyers to help us out. New laws are written all the time. Old ones are adjusted. The code grows slowly outdated as new legislation forms. Everyone wants to be a good citizen and a good Catholic, but it is hard sometimes to know what the law is.

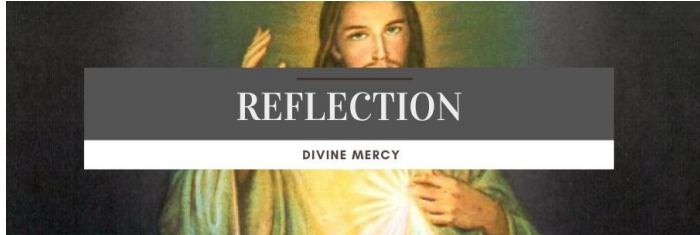

In Jesus' day, the law was also complex. At times it appeared that laws conflicted, as when he healed on a Sabbath. Laws of charity conflicted with laws governing sacred time.

When they asked Jesus for the greatest law, he simplified the complex structure of laws and reduced them to two: Love God. Love your neighbor.

St. Paul told the Romans, "The one who loves another has fulfilled the law." He made it very simple.

God is the ultimate judge over how we observe the laws of church and state. God made the rules as simple as possible. When the laws of our institutions seem complex, we can always please God by following the most basic law of all: love.

REFLECTION

DIVINE MERCY

Severity Postponed

It's important to know that Jesus has every right to bring forth His justice here and now. He has every right to be severe with us on account of our sins and to bring eternal judgment upon us. This truth is often forgotten on account of His Mercy. But we should never forget this fact. It's important to remember this because unless we understand the absolute right that God has to execute swift and irrevocable judgment on the world, we will never understand that His restraint is an act of immeasurable Mercy. The Mother of God is especially entrusted with the responsibility of praying for His Mercy and pleading on our behalf that her Son's wrath be withheld. God gave to her this responsibility of intercession for us and He listens to those prayers. He also calls each one of us to pray for Mercy in the world and, though our prayers are not as powerful as the Mother of God, they can be if we place them in her Immaculate Heart. Giving our Blessed Mother our prayers magnifies their power and transforms them into an instrument of unfathomable grace, holding back the hand of the Justice of God (See Diary #1261).

Do you understand the right that God has to bring sudden and severe judgment upon you? That may not be pleasant to think about but it's important to understand. Ponder this fact today. Believe it and know that He withholds His judgment on account of His Mercy. Seek the prayers of our Blessed Mother, this day, and offer her your own prayers. Through your prayers, offered through her intercession, God's justice is withheld and His Mercy will be bestowed in our time.

Dearest Mother, I offer you, this day, all my prayers, works and sacrifices so that you may in turn offer them to Your Son. Please pray for me and for all your children that the justice of Your Son will be withheld as His Mercy is poured forth. Jesus, I trust in You.

FR. VOGEL'S COLUMN

PASTOR

Dear Friends in Christ,

From our Gospel for this weekend, our Lord Jesus Christ gives us instructions on fraternal correction and prayer. I will focus on the latter.

Prayer. It's something that we need. We actually need prayer more than we need food. It's our constant connection with God, the One Who made us and saved us. I always separate prayer into two categories: (1) informal prayers, and; (2) formal prayers.

Informal prayers are the prayers that we say from the heart; these are the prayers we say without reading from a text nor from memorizing a text. These prayers can be to adore God, show him the sorrow for our sins, our thanks to God, and our petitions/supplications that we say throughout the course of the day.

Formal prayers are like the Our Father, Hail Mary, the Rosary, and the Mass. The Rosary and the Mass are also perfect examples of ritual prayer; there's a definite pattern and rhythm to these prayers. God created us as ritual beings. A great example is how you eat your food: do you eat your food all mixed together, section by section, fruits first then vegetables then the meat, etc. Or, the order to how you get ready in the morning: when you shower, shave, eat breakfast, etc. God created us humans with a ritual nature to ourselves, so it ties in with how we communicate with God too, in our prayer life.

Both informal and formal types of prayer are needed in our lives. What we all need to emphasize is quality and consistency. Our quality of prayers and consistency in saying our prayers. Keeping these two points in check, we will have a fruitful prayer life. Now, is my prayer life where it should be? Am I doing too many prayers that they lack quality? Am I doing enough prayers? Do I say my prayers daily? If not, then I need to change it asap.

In Christo et Maria,

Father Vogel

THE FUTURE OF FAMILY SUPPORT IS HERE

*Introducing Shiloh's Newly Developed
My Strong Family Program*

At Shiloh, we believe strong families change generations.

Our newly expanded My Strong Family Program is designed to walk alongside mothers, fathers, and families from pregnancy through early childhood - providing compassionate care, practical resources, and faith-centered support every step of the way.

A Program Built for Real Life

Every family's story is different. That's why our program is fully tailored to each client's unique circumstances. Each client is paired with a dedicated Case Manager who provides weekly check-ins, mentorship, and ongoing support.

Participants engage in:

- Parenting & co-parenting classes
- Budgeting & life skills training
- Newborn, infant & toddler care education
- Biblical counseling & faith-based parenting

Powered by the Missouri Alternatives to Abortion Program

Through the Missouri Alternatives to Abortion (A2A) Program, Shiloh is expanding services to ensure women have the resources, support, and guidance needed to confidently choose life.

This allows us to provide:

- Increased case management support
- Expanded education opportunities
- Ongoing care throughout pregnancy and beyond
- Stronger referral connections within the community

① What is My Strong Family?

My Strong Family is an incentive-based, "Earn While You Learn" program designed to support families from pregnancy through a child's first two years of life.

Clients actively participate in education, mentorship, and life-building programs while receiving the tools they need to build a stable, healthy future.

② How does it work?

Families participate in structured program tiers, earning essential baby and household items by completing classes and meeting milestones.

This model encourages:

- Consistent engagement
- Continued learning
- Long-term relationship building
- Stronger parenting confidence

All progress is supported through weekly case management and mentoring sessions.

③ What will change?

What Makes This Program Transformational?

Through this program, families gain access to high-quality, essential baby items that many would otherwise be unable to afford.

Items include:

- Car seat, base & stroller systems
- Highchairs
- Hands-free breast pumps
- Boppy pillows
- Infant swings
- Pack-n-plays & bassinets
- Learning toys & developmental tools

These items are earned, not given—creating dignity, ownership, and engagement while removing financial barriers that often lead to uncertainty when choosing parenting.
