

Join the Prattville-Autauga Character Coalition as we present

2026 Champion of Character

Rick Karle

Thursday, August 27 | 6-8 p.m.

Central Alabama Community College, Prattville

Rick Karle is an award-winning broadcaster who spent 43 years in television as a sports and news anchor. Today, he shares uplifting stories through Rick Karle Good News, a Facebook community of more than 600,000 followers and over 120 million monthly views. Known for highlighting everyday heroes, inspiring moments, and positive stories from around the world, Rick is dedicated to spreading kindness, hope, and good news. He is also a podcast host, writer, speaker, and media entrepreneur based in Alabama.

DINNER
&
SILENT AUCTION

Individual
Tickets
$75
Includes Dinner

Sponsorships available
for individuals,
organizations &
businesses

Since 2007, the Prattville-Autauga Character Coalition has been committed to creating a stronger, safer and more unified community by promoting good character. Through the financial generosity of many partners, the Coalition provides character education grants and student scholarships, and recognizes individuals, organizations and businesses for displaying exemplary character.