Jane Kreusler-Walsh

Jane Kreusler-Walsh, 60, is a renowned appellate lawyer. Serving on the board of trustees of the Legal Aid Society of Palm Beach County and the Making Every Day Count organization, Walsh spends nearly 20 hours a month dealing with family and juvenile drug court issues, in addition to her full case load at her firm.

CASE UNLOAD: "I've facilitated towards the children's issues and was fortunate enough to be assigned those cases. You get such a sense of fulfillment when you represent someone who really doesn't have a voice."

METHOD TO THE MOTIVATION: "I love what I do and a big part of that is that I had terrific role models. My mom worked until the day she passed away last September. It wasn't a question for her of having to do it but wanting to do it."
