As Catholics, our mission is clear—we are called upon to share our faith as disciples ourselves and disciple-makers as Jesus preached: “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded of you.” (Matthew 28:19-20) Since each parish and the Diocese are partners in this work, robust support of parish offertory and the Diocesan Appeal ensures the Church has the resources it needs to carry out its mission.

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

There was a young mother in my parish community who was depressed due to financial strain. She prayed for help. One morning before Mass, she placed on the counter a zip-lock bag filled with jewelry and old coins. Smiling, she explained she had been fixing an old cabinet and found the items hidden deep within the walls of her home. One particular coin could be worth as much as $900,000. The contents of the bag—previously unknown to them—were now their prized possession. Their plans changed that week. They had to learn how much it was worth. This week, the Lord tells us, “For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be” (Luke 12:34). Our lives revolve around what we treasure. When we discover the treasure the Father gives us—the kingdom of God—everything changes. We might not know its precise value, but we rearrange our lives around it. The joy of this discovery should never be far from our minds. Sometimes we go through times when we can’t find this treasure. It seems hidden. Or it appears like dirty old coins and worthless jewelry in a Ziploc bag. But how crazy would my parishioners be if they tossed it away without knowing the cash value? How much crazier are we if we center our hearts on any treasure except that of Jesus and his kingdom? Remember, the Father is pleased to give it to us. That’s why we put our hearts there, even when it is hidden.

— Father John Muir

Mother Teresa’s Closet

With our monthly distributions to Fulton County families in need, our closet needs re-stocking. While we gladly accept un-opened bar soap, deodorant, feminine products, tissues, paper towels, laundry detergent, cleaners, toilet paper, shampoo, toothpaste, and baby wipes, our greatest needs are diapers and adult incontinent supplies. Monetary donations in memory of loved ones also welcome. Mail your donation to Holy Trinity Parish Office, 153 S. Main Street, Gloversville. Please include the name of the person that you would like remembered, and note ‘Mother Teresa’s Closet’ on the memo line. Volunteers are needed on the 2nd Thursday of the month from 9am to 12:30pm in the Holy Trinity Parish Hall. Hours of distribution are 9:30 to noon. We are very grateful for our volunteers and for all of the donors in our linked parishes that support this ministry, including the Helpers Community Store.

MISSION COOPERATIVE APPEAL

Each year our Dioceses in conjunction with other Dioceses throughout the United States, participates in the Mission Cooperative Appeal. Through this appeal, religious communities are invited to send a representative from their Community to remind us of each one's personal call to perform missionary work in one way or another. The speaker will explain how his particular religious community answers this call, followed by an invitation to assist his religious community in their efforts to bring Christ to the poor through our prayers and generosity. Doing so affords us the opportunity to fulfill Christ's command, "Go, teach all nations, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit."

This year, Brother Dennis Lee from the Brothers of the Christian Schools, commonly known as the Christian Brothers, will speak at all the Masses here in our parishes on August 9th and 10th. Many may know the Brothers through their various academic institutions such as La Salle University in Philadelphia, Manhattan College in the Bronx, along with many secondary and middle schools here in the United States. Very few, however, know of their missionary work with the poor in such marginalized lands as Ethiopia, Kenya, Nairobi, the Philippines, Vietnam, Haiti, and West Indies. Please join in warmly welcoming the Christian Brothers to our Parishes.

PARISH PICNIC

Our Linked Parish Picnic will be held on Sunday, September 7th from 1-4 pm at the Concordia Club. Meat will be provided. Please bring a dish to share. Sign-up sheets are located at the entrances of both churches. Please sign up by August 31st.

Fonda Fair Family Life Booth

The 2025 Fonda Fair will run from August 27 – September 1. We have been invited to help cover the Family Life Booth. This is an interdenominational public witness to proclaim the sanctity of life from birth to death and we have been participating and supporting it for many years. Please contact Chris Nunn-Crane at 518-736-1558 for more information.

Lessons from EWTN

Of all the things that I can put on today, it is humility that will make me most attractive.

Please remember in your prayers all those members of our parish family who are sick or suffering. All those in hospitals & nursing homes and all of our homebound. We pray for all those who have died recently. Remember the men and women serving in the armed forces and their families along with all first responders, & health care workers.
