

Rise & Pray United Sponsorship Proposal

About Rise & Pray United

- Rise & Pray United exists to awaken the hope of prayer — creating peaceful spaces where women of faith unite to cover families, communities, and schools in prayer.
- We serve women who love God deeply yet may feel disconnected from traditional church life, offering a calm, Spirit-led environment where prayer becomes personal again and hope is restored. Our rhythm is simple: prayer leads, community follows — and when women pray, families heal and cities transform.

Vision

To awaken the hope of prayer through a dynamic and inter-connected sisterhood community based on the principles of faith, unity, and personal transformation.

Our Story - Rise & Pray United

- In 2020, women came together to pray for their church, families, nation, and leaders during deep uncertainty. Later, two women felt led to pray specifically for children—out of a shared desire to see things change. Those prayers naturally expanded to include families and the unsaved they encountered along the way. What began as connection moments of prayer became steady spaces of hope, encouragement, and renewed strength.
- The Rise & Pray Women's Conference 2026 is the next step—bringing 200 women together to experience the same hope and renewal that's been transforming lives since 2020.

Stewarded

Over the past year, Rise and Pray United has been intentionally formed to steward this work with care and clarity.

We are real people, with real connection.

Through focused community building and thoughtful organizational development, the organization exists to create accessible spaces that support families, strengthen communities, and foster resilience, unity, and hope through prayer and connection.

Rise and Pray United is a faith-based nonprofit organization with 501(c)(3) tax-exempt status

Meet the Team

Yorrelle Brooks

Founder, Visionary Leader & Executive Director

Empowered by God's Grace, connects the right partners, teams, and resources to create programs that strengthen women—especially mothers—with resilience and generational impact. As the visionary behind the Rise & Pray Women's Prayer Conference, she builds prayer-centred, high-quality experiences and collaborates with community leaders to expand support for women and families.

Amy Mears

Director of Programs & Technical Operations

As the Director of Programs & Technical Operations, provides project management and technical support for Rise & Pray United's programs and events. She assists with organizing key logistical details and ensuring smooth technical execution. Amy's role brings practical structure and coordination to the Rise & Pray Women's Prayer Conference, supporting the Executive Director in carrying out the broader strategy with clarity and order.

Angela Pointer

Pastoral Care & Quality Assurance Officer

As the Pastoral Care & Quality Assurance Officer, plays a key role in ensuring that the organization's programs and content align with its core values of faith, healing, and community empowerment. As the stabilizing force on the team, provides quality assurance by ensuring that all content released is rooted in the Word, thereby maintaining spiritual integrity and accuracy. With a pastoral background, Angela Pointer offers support and guidance to the leadership team and community, fostering a spiritually nurturing environment.

Linda Green

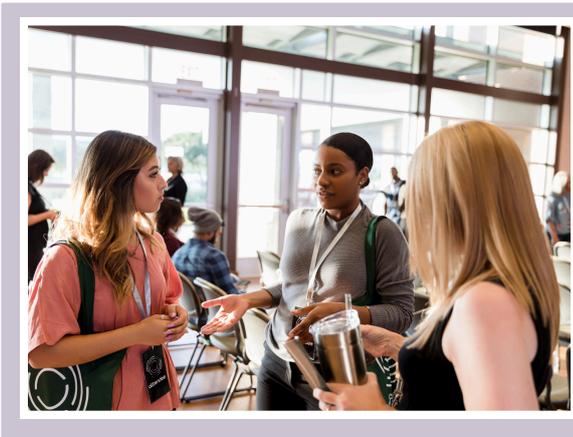

Lead Sponsor & Strategic Finance Support

As the Sponsorship Lead and Acting Treasurer, supports Rise & Pray United by guiding sponsor outreach, maintaining financial stewardship, and assisting with program coordination. Drawing on her background as a Program Director and Sr. Systems Engineer, she brings practical insight, organizational thinking, and steady support to the team. Her role helps strengthen sponsor relationships, ensure responsible financial processes, and provide experienced guidance as the organization prepares for the Rise & Pray Women's Prayer Conference.

Rise & Pray Women's Conference '26

The Rise and Pray Women's Conference 2026 is the flagship event that unites women from across the region, engaging them in hope-filled activities, equipping them with the power of prayer, emotional resilience, and authentic connection – to strengthen families and uplift communities.
