

Introduction:

We have been called to join God on a great adventure filled with meaning, purpose and impact. Often, that adventure requires an ability to see things from God's perspective. We all tend to stumble along the way due to our own humanity. This series is intended to help us see God as the Way Maker.

Scripture:

Teach me how to live, O Lord.

*Lead me along the right path,
for my enemies are waiting for me.*

Do not let me fall into their hands.

*For they accuse me of things I've never done;
with every breath they threaten me with violence.*

*Yet I am confident I will see the Lord's goodness
while I am here in the land of the living.*

Wait patiently for the Lord.

Be brave and courageous.

Yes, wait patiently for the Lord.

Psalms 27:11–14

Discussion Questions:

1. Do you love change, or do you avoid it at all costs?
2. What is something that you hang on to, just because you hate the thought of changing it?
3. Share about a time when change has been easy or exciting. Share about a time when change has been hard.
4. What are the anchors in your life—the things you know to be true and real and unchanging?
5. In what ways are you growing right now? How does that growth feel?
6. What needs to change in your life?
