

Introduction:

Life doesn't stand still, and neither does God. In this series, we'll journey through Scripture to discover that God is always at work, even when we can't see Him clearly. In learning from Old Testament stories, we'll see that God isn't distant from our struggles — He's moving through them.

Scripture:

The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases,
his mercies never come to an end;
they are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.
“The Lord is my portion,” says my soul,
“therefore I will hope in him.”

– Lamentations 3:22–24

Discussion Questions:

1. What would you do with a second chance today? What would be different about your life?
2. If you had one extra day of life, how would you spend it? Is there a conversation with someone you love that you'd want to have?
3. When have you said "no" to God? What happened afterward?
4. Do you think God has concern for you personally — and for the world as a whole? Why or why not?
5. Share about a time when God didn't give up on you, even when you gave him reason to.
6. When have you received a second chance? What did you do with it?
7. When has God used you to share love with someone else?
8. When have you had the chance to give someone else a second chance? Did you take it? What happened?
9. Who in your life needs a second chance right now? What's one way you could offer that to them?
10. We have today. How will you use it?
