MEDIA RELEASE

End of Administration at Coomalie Community Government Council—A New Chapter Begins

The Coomalie Community Government Council formally acknowledges the conclusion of its period under administration, marking both the end of a unique and challenging chapter and the beginning of a renewed era for local government in our community.

The past period, during which Council operated under administration, was distinctive in both its structure and timing. Guided by legislative requirements and the need for decisive, impartial oversight, Council benefited from the stewardship of renowned administrator, Mr. Mark Blackburn. His extensive experience and wisdom have been invaluable, steering the organisation through an era of necessary reform and modernisation.

With Mark Blackburn presiding over Council's business, Coomalie Community Government Council was able to stay the course through a demanding and sometimes uncertain period. His leadership, together with the work of the CEO, helped ensure operational stability and business continuity—factors critical to supporting the ongoing delivery of services to the Coomalie community.

Significant achievements under Mark's administration include:

- Frequent and direct engagement with community members, fostering transparency and open dialogue.
- Introduction of new opportunities for public participation, including an official Acknowledgement to Council at meetings and the new 'Questions with Notice' provision for the community.
- Comprehensive review and approval of Council's Governance, Financial, and Human Resources policies to align operations with the Local Government Act.
- Implementation and delivery of the 2024–2025 Shire Plan and Budget.
- Adoption and approval of the 2025–2026 Shire Plan and Budget, providing a clear vision for the future.
- Introduction of Council Reserves in accordance with Asset Management Plan recommendations, strengthening Council's long-term financial sustainability.
- Maintaining a high level of expectation and operational performance to ensure continued service excellence for our community.

Mr. Mark Blackburn's tenure as Official Manager will officially conclude on the 8th of September 2025, when the new Council is declared. As we prepare for this transition, we acknowledge the strong foundation laid throughout his administration—modernising operations, embedding best practice governance, and recalibrating the organisation in line with contemporary standards. The CEO expresses deep gratitude for Mark's counsel, which has been central to maintaining stability and progress during this complex stage.

As Council returns to standard governance arrangements, the foundations laid during administration will serve the community well. The commitment to transparency, strong governance, sound financial management, and community engagement will continue as guiding principles.

On behalf of Council staff and the Coomalie community, we extend our sincere thanks to Mark Blackburn for his exceptional contributions and leadership during this pivotal time.

What's in a Name?

TORTILLA FLATS

The Tortilla Flats locality is named after the former Government Experimental Farm of that name.

The origin is derived from John Steinbecks book Tortilla Flats, 1963, as it was thought at the time Steinbecks characters were matched by those working on the farm.

The Experimental Farm commenced in 1958 with the view to cattle rotation, rice and pasture growing experiments. The farm was sold at auction in 1990.

BACHELOR
DEVELOPMENT
ASSOCIATION INC

Terry and Julie, our very active nomad helpers have left so we have had to reduce our opening hours at the Museum. The season will wind down now as the hotter weather comes on, but yet there are still many tourists around.

When Lucinda and I were there last Tuesday (19th) we had a great number of visitors right through until mid- afternoon, so that was great.

Wednesday and Thursday is not covered currently. So, if you are reading this and could help it would be great for the Museum and the community.

Just now Lucinda and I are working towards hanging photographs we have been given into the Aboriginal area in the first building. This will take some weeks to complete. There will also be a panel re the wonderful lady, Kathy Mills.

Last Thursday Lucinda and I, along with many community people from Batchelor and Adelaide River attended the funeral for Sue Bulmer. Sue was involved with the Museum from the very early days when we were renovating the old buildings. Later she gave a day each weekend to open the Museum and welcome visitors.

Sue also encouraged Sean to volunteer at the Museum and he then covered a weekend day each week as well. They both attended committee meetings and were committed and keen Museum volunteers. We have lost those two dedicated people within a few months.

Wonderful commitment to the Batchelor Museum from Sue and Sean over many years.

Gaye continues to respond to phone enquiries from people coming by on days when we are not able to open, and it is great to have someone close to respond. Gaye is there Sundays, Prue on Saturday, Carol on Monday and Marjan on Friday.

As well Darryl runs the Museum Facebook page which is great to get any news and requests for Grey Nomads out there.

Few- but dedicated for your community!
