Moments in Focus

The MACC is celebrating photography and photographers. This is an open call for photography. Whether you are a weekend warrior/hiker or a professional we want to see what you have been focusing on. Size limitations are nothing less than 8", and nothing larger than 48" in either direction, not counting frame. Frame should not be more than 3".

RC Arts Members you cannot submit work that has previously shown at the MACC. If it has shown at City Hall that is okay.

If you are not a member of Rancho Cordova Arts use the code for your submissions. If you are not a member of Rancho Cordova Arts the fee is $35 for three submissions.

Juror

David Kalb is an award-winning street photographer whose work has been exhibited throughout California. He has been shooting on the street since 2012 and expanded his focus to include portraiture in 2019. The Yolo Basin Foundation (YBF), where David volunteers as a photographer, uses his images in their promotional/social media materials. David joined Viewpoint Gallery in Sacramento in 2012. David was appointed to the Board of Directors in 2018
