

We Care Arts Privacy Practices

We Care Arts is committed to protecting the privacy of everyone who engages with us—artist-clients, families, staff, volunteers, donors, and community partners. This Privacy notice explains what information we collect, how we use it, and how we protect it.

What Information We Collect

We may collect names, contact details, emergency contacts, donation details, and program participation data. Some health or disability information may be collected if needed to provide safe services.

How We Use Information

We use information to deliver services, communicate with you, process donations, ensure safety, and meet compliance requirements.

How We Protect Information

We keep records secure with locked files, password-protected systems, and staff training. We never sell or trade your personal information.

Sharing Information

We only share information when required by law, with accreditation or funding agencies, or when necessary to protect health and safety.

Donor Privacy

Donor names and giving history will not be shared publicly without consent. Donors may give anonymously and opt out of communications.

Your Rights

You may request access to your information, corrections to errors, or limits on how it is used or shared.

Updates to These Privacy Practices

We may update this policy from time to time. The latest version will always be available upon request or on our website.

Contact Us

For further information regarding the full policy and procedure referenced in this notice, please contact:

Compliance Officer
We Care Arts
3035 Wilmington Pike
937-252-3937
compliance@wecarearts.com