Celebrating Life

Sharing memories and telling stories of a special life

Saying Goodbye

It's never easy, but saying goodbye is a natural and healthy part of the grieving process.

At our funeral home, this can take place in a number of ways. From a more traditional ceremony joined by family and friends, to a private, meaningful service with your immediate family.

Regardless of how you want to say goodbye, our professional staff is ready to serve.

Sharing the Story

A caring parent, a lifelong friend - every life tells a story.

Our team will help you share that story in a unique and appropriate way. We believe in celebrating the life of the individual by recognizing how they touched the lives of others. This is the story that we all have to share.

Cremation Choices

Choosing cremation offers several choices for service and memorialization. The following considerations will help you determine the type of event that would be most meaningful to you, your family, and friends.

- Do you prefer to offer friends and extended family the opportunity to say goodbye and offer their love and support with a public viewing or memorial?
- Do you prefer to conduct ceremonial services at a church or place of worship?
- If family and friends are coming from a great distance, do you prefer to arrange a memorial service following the cremation?

Whatever your preference, our staff will work one-on-one with you to create an appropriate tribute. To help simplify the planning and arrangement process, the offerings described on the following pages represent the most popular choices of our families who elect cremation. Each of these packages offer our Signature Service Commitment.

Choosing a Final Resting Place

Following the service and the cremation process, there are several options for choosing a peaceful, final resting place, including:

- H Home - Keeping in your private residence
- N Niche - Designated place in a church or mausoleum
- B Burial - Traditional placement in a cemetery
- S Scattering - Spread in a special location

Hartsell Funeral Home

What began as a cabinet and coffin business during the Civil War by Jacob Hartsell has evolved into a fifth-generation company composed of four funeral homes, cemetery, crematory, and stand-alone pet cremation service.

As a leading provider of funeral services, we assist families in many ways to make this time easier. We do this by coordinating cemeteries and ministers, generating death certificates and obituaries, ordering jewelry and keepsakes, planning receptions, and following through on the family's personalized services.

Here at Hartsell Funeral Home we give our families the peace of mind knowing that their loved one never leaves the care of our certified Cremation Specialist. Our state-of-the-art crematory is located on our Midland campus and is equipped with a viewing area if desired.

CODE OF ETHICS

At Hartsell Funeral Homes, we have a strict code of ethics and procedures we adhere to while your loved one is in our care. We only use our own crematory, and the entire process is monitored by security cameras.

As part of our procedures, one of our staff members will accompany your loved one to our crematory, where they will stay in our care the entire time. They will then witness the start of the cremation process.
