New Business to Consider:

MCPARC:

Mayor Jason DeFrance spoke on previous discussions with MCPARC about a park in White Hall.

Tony from MCPARC stated that they would have to look at next fiscal year to help with this project.

A discussion was held on the property and what would need done to start the project.

A discussion was held on the funds it would take to cover the cost of the park and what the split would look like between the Town of White Hall and MCPARC. Further discussions will be held once more solid numbers are obtained.

The next steps were then discussed which included have Town Attorney Trey Simmernan working on a general agreement, process of putting projects out for bid, and talk with White Hall businesses around where the park will be located.

Recorder Charles Mason asked if there is any demand for an ice skating or roller-skating rink. MCPARC stated they hear about it some, but not a lot and they get a lot of requests for pump tracks.

Lastly, Mayor Jason DeFrance stated that Town Administrator Cindy Stover will reach out to Town Attorney Trey Simmerman about a general agreement. Tony from MCPARC stated that their next board meeting is December 16th so it would be good to have it before then.

Adjournment:

Deputy Mayor Tim Ridenour made the motion to adjourn.

Motion passed.

Meeting adjourned at 7:05 pm.
