Introduction and Aims

St Aidan's Catholic Primary School is the data controller of the personal information you provide to us. This means the school determines the purposes for which, and the manner with which, any personal data relating to pupils and their families is to be processed.

In some cases, your data may be outsourced to a third-party processor; however, this will only be done with your consent unless the law requires the school to share your data. Where the school outsources data to a third-party processor, the same data protection standards that St Aidan's Catholic Primary School upholds are imposed on the processor.

Carole Connelly at the School DPO Service is the Data Protection Officer supported by Vicky Barker (School Business Manager) from St Aidan's Catholic Primary School. Their role is to oversee and monitor the school's data protection procedures, and to ensure they are compliant with the GDPR. The data protection officer can be contacted on 01942 223 544 or v.barker@saintaidans.wigan.sch.uk.

Mission Statement

As stated in our school's Mission Statement, our 3 aims are to-

- ~ Have a sense of responsibility and take an active part in serving our world;
- ~ Have a growing understanding of Gospel Values and gather together in prayer and Worship;
- ~ Have a passion for learning and an enjoyment for discovery.

“Hand in Hand,

In the image of Jesus,

We grow together and celebrate who we are.”

The staff of St. Aidan's Catholic Primary School will work to give each child the entitlement of a broad, balanced, differentiated curriculum (irrespective of ability) encouraging in every individual a sense of self-worth and self-esteem. All teaching and learning is underpinned by the school mission statement.

Why do we collect your information?

St Aidan's Catholic Primary School holds the legal right to collect and use personal data relating to pupils and their families. We may also receive information regarding pupils and their families from any previous schools, LA and/or the DfE. We collect and use personal data in order to process the data lawfully as set out in the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and UK law.

When a pupil transitions from primary to secondary school, we have a legal obligation to transfer certain personal data. This includes the pupils educational record and certain special categories of personal data such as ethnic origin. This data is transferred to the secondary school that the pupil will attend. This transfer will take place no later than 15 school days after the pupil ceases to be registered at the primary school. It is carried out using secure file transfer services including the Department for Education's school-to-school (S2S) system and the Child Protection Online Monitoring and Safeguarding system (CPOMS).

However, it is often necessary or beneficial for secondary schools to receive this information earlier, usually in March, so they can make the necessary preparations for the arrival of new pupils.

In respect of any information which the secondary school requires in order to fulfil its duties as a school and a public authority (including any information necessary to make any preparations for safeguarding purposes or to make reasonable adjustments for disabilities), our legal basis for transferring this information is that it is necessary for the performance of a public task.

Additional personal data about the pupil may also be transferred to the secondary school, which is not strictly necessary for the secondary school's performance of its duties as a public authority, but which makes the process of transitioning from primary to secondary school more efficient and reduces the administrative burden both for the schools and, in some cases, the parents or guardians of the pupil. In this respect, our legal basis for transferring this information is that it is necessary for the legitimate interest of both us and the secondary school in ensuring the smooth transition of pupils between the schools.

You have the right to object to this early transfer of information by contacting us and, if you do, we will only carry out this transfer where we can demonstrate that we have compelling, legitimate grounds to do so.

Grounds for this are stated below:

For non-special/non-sensitive data:

- In relation to a contract for education with you and contained in the Education Act 1996.
- In relation to management of the school under the Education (Governor's Annual Reports) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2002 SI 2002, No 1171.
- In relation to School Admissions Code, Statutory guidance for admission authorities, governing bodies, local authorities, school's adjudicators, and admission appeals panels December 2014.
- In relation to Regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

For special /sensitive data:

- In relation to the protection of children under the "Keeping children safe in education Statutory guidance for schools and colleges September 2020"; "Working together to safeguard children. A guide to inter-agency working to safeguard and promote the welfare of children July 2018 (updated on 21 Feb 2020).
- In relation to the safeguarding of children under the Safeguarding Act 2006.

In accordance with the above, the personal data of pupils and their families is collected and used for the following reasons:

- To support pupil learning.
- To monitor and report on pupil progress.
- To provide appropriate pastoral care.
- To assess the quality of our service.
- To comply with the law regarding data sharing.
- To safeguard pupils.
- To advise of any curriculum related activities we undertake or encourage you to attend; this may involve sending a newsletter or brief via email.

Which data is collected?

The categories of pupil information that the school collects, holds and shares include the following:

- Personal information, e.g. pupil names, contact numbers and addresses.

- Characteristics, e.g. ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility.

Headteacher: Mrs. J. M. Farrimond, B.A. (Hons) N.P.Q.H

- Attendance information, e.g. number of absences and absence reasons.
- Assessment information, e.g. national curriculum assessment results.
- Relevant medical information.
- Information relating to SEND.
- Behavioural information, e.g. number of temporary exclusions.

Whilst most of the personal data you provide to the school is mandatory, some is provided on a voluntary basis. When collecting data, the school will inform you whether you are required to provide this data or if your consent is required.

Where consent is required, the school will provide you with specific and explicit information with regards to the reasons the data is being collected and how the data will be used.

How long is data stored for?

Personal data relating to pupils at St Aidan's Catholic Primary School and their families is stored in line with the school's Records Management Policy.

In accordance with the GDPR, the school does not store personal data indefinitely. However, there may be exceptions to this, where we have obligations under our insurance cover scheme to retain data for indefinite or protracted periods. All other data is only stored for as long as is necessary to complete the task for which it was originally collected.

Will my information be shared?

The school is required to share pupils' data with the DfE on a statutory basis.

The National Pupil Database (NPD) is managed by the DfE and contains information about pupils in schools in England. St Aidan's Catholic Primary School is required by law to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections, e.g. for the school census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The DfE may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or wellbeing of children in England by:

- Conducting research or analysis.
- Producing statistics.
- Providing information, advice, or guidance.

The DfE has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of any data shared from the NPD is maintained.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

St Aidan's Catholic Primary School will not share your personal information with any third parties without your consent unless the law allows us to do so. The school routinely shares pupils' information with:

- Pupils' destinations upon leaving the school.
- The LA.
- The NHS i.e. School Nurse (for Test, Track and Trace).
- The DfE - <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>

What are your rights?

Parents and pupils have the following rights in relation to the processing of their personal data. You have the right to:

- Be informed about how St Aidan's Catholic Primary School uses your personal data.
- Request access to the personal data that St Aidan's Catholic Primary School holds.

- Request that your personal data is amended if it is inaccurate or incomplete.
- Request that your personal data is erased where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing.
- Request that the processing of your data is restricted.
- Object to your personal data being processed.
- Request my information in a machine-readable format i.e. Excel, Word, or a CSV file.

Where the processing of your data is based on your consent, you may be able to withdraw such consent in limited circumstances.

If you have a concern about the way St Aidan's Catholic Primary School and/or the DfE is collecting or using your personal data, you can raise a concern with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO). The ICO can be contacted on 0303 123 1113, Monday-Friday 9am-5pm or via this link <https://ico.org.uk/concerns>.

Where can you find more information?

If you would like to find out more information about how we and/or the DfE collect, use, and store your personal data, please visit our website (<https://www.saintaidansprimary.org.uk/>) or download our Data Protection Policy.
