ONE-SHOT SCENE GUIDELINES

SCENE 1: CHARACTER INTRODUCTION

Create a scene/scenario where everyone can introduce their PCs one-by-one & explore a connection to at least 1 other PC.

SETTING

Region (Genre): “NYC (Modern)”

WEATHER

What’s the weather like?

SCENE 2: QUEST DETAILS / CHOOSE YOUR QUEST

If the quest is set in stone, the Characters join forces and discuss what details they have access to about the upcoming adventure before setting out.

If they have quest options, the players discuss what their plan is before the PCs join forces and set out on the adventure.

SCENE 3: NAVIGATION SEQUENCE & OBSTACLES

The journey towards the focus of the adventure is perilous in and of itself. There is some sort of difficulty that the PCs need to overcome in order to get to Scene 4. The obstacle should serve two main purposes:

- 1. Warm up the players to their PC’s abilities.
- 2. Use some abilities/take some damage so that the PCs don’t enter the last encounter at full strength.

SCENE 4: COMBAT OPPORTUNITY / DANGEROUS PUZZLE / MONSTER

This is where most of your prep will go into.

You’ll want to set up or at least have easy access to all the essential stats for a puzzle and/or monster.

Minimum info needed for a monster/final adversary: HP, ATTACK Bonus, DAMAGE, AC/DEFENSE. (Example: 7 HP | +2 ATTACK: ½ DAMAGE | 7 AC).

SCENE 5: WRAP UP / REWARD / RETURN / SUNSET

Other than Rewards, ‘tis usually ad libbed from the adventure’s events.
