Pastor's Reflection

Dear parishioners,

I truly hope your Lent is going well!

You know how you can have something that you are so accustomed to seeing that you never even notice it any more.

I have one such thing. It is a poem that a Carmelite sister, Sr. Lucia Mary, gave me that I put on my refrigerator just so I could say it at random moments in my day, like....when I am burning something on the stove. I saw it the other day and read it after not even noticing it for several years. It is a beautiful poem on faith and can perhaps help your Lenten journey, especially if this Lent has been tough.

Faith means to seek the Light hidden by darkness.
Faith means courage
when stepping into the unknown.
Faith means strength
in resisting temptation.
Faith means following Truth in freedom.
Faith means enduring in trust.
Faith means hope when all is lost.
Faith means patience
when the night is long.
When all is said and done Be Faith!

Blessings,

Fr. Peter

COMUNIDAD HISPANA

Reflexión del pastor

Estimados parroquianos,

¡Espero de verdad que su Cuaresma vaya bien!

Ustedes saben cómo uno puede tener algo que está tan acostumbrado a ver que ya ni siquiera lo nota.

Yo tengo uno así. Es un poema que me regaló una hermana carmelita, Sor Lucía María, y lo puse en el refrigerador para poder recitarlo en momentos inesperados del día, como... cuando se me quema algo en la estufa. Lo vi el otro día y lo leí después de varios años sin siquiera notarlo. Es un hermoso poema sobre la fe y quizás pueda ayudarles en su camino cuaresmal, especialmente si esta Cuaresma ha sido difícil.

Fe significa buscar la Luz oculta por la oscuridad.
Fe significa valentía al adentrarse en lo desconocido.
Fe significa fuerza al resistir la tentación.
Fe significa seguir la Verdad con libertad.
Fe significa perseverar en la confianza.
Fe significa esperanza cuando todo está perdido.
Fe significa paciencia cuando la noche es larga.

¡Al final, ten fe!

Bendiciones,

Padre Peter
