

In Tribute

Charles Andrew McClenahan
February 7, 1941 - May 11, 2017

Charles Andrew McClenahan, or “Charlie Mac” as he was affectionally known, was the founder of Landmark Insurance & Financial Group in Princess, MD.

In Addition to being a successful businessman, Charlie Mac served as Mayor of the City of Crisfield from 1978-1982, and was elected to serve in the Maryland House of Delegates from 1992-2003.

His state and community were always a top priority for Charlie Mac, and he was instrumental in the growth of Somerset, Wicomico and Worcester Counties. Charlie embraced change, working tirelessly for his community and the State of Maryland.

Mac was a leader in establishing many events from the state to the local level, including the National Hard Crab Derby, the J. Millard Tawes Carb & Clam Bake, the Tawes Museum, Great Hope Golf Course, Chesapeake Bay Commission, and the Tri-County Council, which provided Shore Transit buses for the Three Lower Counties.

Testimonial

“I was able to move my services to UNA on October 1, 2023. I now feel like I am in a place in my life that I haven’t been in probably 5 to 10 years. I have people who are in this organization who actually care about me as a person instead of a dollar sign. I guess you can say that I got my life back and I am going to live out my dream because I always wanted to live in my own house with support. There will be more good things that will be coming my way...”

- Paul N.
