

Sabbaticals.com
PURSUE YOUR PASSION

Fall Offer!

Wine Learning Journey in London

Duration: 1 week (November or December 2026)

School: Wine & Spirit Education Trust (WSET)

Program: Level 2 qualification, 3-day intensive course

Accommodation: 52 Cornwall Gardens, London SW7 4BG

Price: $6,500 (representing 40% discount)

+1 912-230-3940
nelsonallen@sabbaticals.com
www.sabbaticals.com

Premier Wine School:

- WSET is a global leader in wine education, offering a clear, engaging path of study with industry respected qualifications designed for professionals and enthusiasts alike.
- It's Level 2 course is for beginner to intermediate clients, covering grape varieties, wine regions, styles and quality factors across still, sparkling and fortified wines, along with systematic tasting.
- This immersive course lasts 3 days, from 9:00am to 4:30pm daily, with 44 tutored wine tastings, and a multiple choice test at the end for qualification.

Luxurious Accommodation:

- Owned by Sabbaticals.com, 52 Cornwall Gardens is a recently renovated 2-bedroom flat in South Kensington (closest tube: Gloucester Road).
- With private entrance, bespoke artwork, Crittall fixtures and outdoor terrace, it's been nominated for a British Institute of Interior Design award, and is featured on Domus Stay, a luxury short-term rental platform, for £800 - £1,000 per night.
- Kensington Gardens / Hyde Park, the Natural History Museum, Science Museum and Royal Albert Hall are within a 10 to 15 minute walk.

Wine Mentor & Lifestyle Concierge:

- To ensure an amazing learning journey, you will have a wine mentor and lifestyle concierge:
- Peter McCombie, a Master of Wine with over 30 years of experience, teaches, writes, consults and judges, and will be available for an in-person visit.
- MiCa Living will provide a personalized lifestyle concierge service including airport transfer, travel arrangement and local amenity guidance throughout your stay.

