

Homeschool
Enrichment Kits

Teens Taking Action | Kit 7

Engagement 1 | Learning from Youth Activists

Watch this TED talk - From social media to social impact | Amonge Sinxoto | TEDxLytteltonWomen - and take notes in your notebook. What are Amonge's tips? What are your plans to leverage social media to make a difference?

Read this blog post - 4 Teen Activists You Should Be Following on Social - on Likable and take notes in your notebook. What can you learn from these youth activists?

Engagement 2 | TikTok as Social Action

Read these articles about how TikTok has become the newest social media to be a platform for social action. TikTok Pivots From Dance Moves To A Racial Justice Movement and TikTok activism: 'We're changing the world in 15 seconds'

Create your own TikTok about your issue and share your post with us by tagging us @rockyourworldedu and #rockyorights. As an alternative, make a video - 60 seconds or under - for instagram. Tag us @rockyourworldedu and #rockyorights.

TikTok activism:

Engagement 3 | Pitch to a Prospective Team

Social media is a powerful tool for a creative activist, though the work does not end there. It's important for you to know how people are talking about young people as Slacktivists. You have to decide how you will define yourself as a creative activist, leveraging the power of social media and staying committed to your issue.

Watch Likes Don't Save Lives and The Critical Periphery in the Growth of Social Protests. Capture your thinking in your notebook. What ideas do you have about using social media as an activist?