Day 1 – Tuesday, September 1st

Depart Boston Airport for overnight flight to Dubrovnik via Dublin.

Day 2 – Wednesday, September 2nd

On arrival, you will be met by our guides who will direct you towards your coach ready to start our transfer to this most Blessed village, Medjugorje. The guide on the transfer will inform us of what we can expect during our time here as we view the splendid scenery on route. As we drive into Medjugorje, with the steeple of St. James Church first greeting us, we will arrive at our hotel. Each evening, we will attend the parish evening program. It begins with the rosary followed by Holy Mass and depending on the day, we finish with adoration.

Day 3 – Thursday, September 3rd

We start our day with breakfast before attending 10:00am mass, which is intended for English-speaking pilgrims, in the Church of St. James. The Church of St. James is placed under patronage of St. James the Apostle, who is patron saint of pilgrims. We do not move very far and usually meet at the shrine of Our Lady of Peace for our opening meeting where the guides will share with us the history of the place, introduce us to the shrine and take us through the week, and through their words and experiences enlighten us to the messages and intentions of Our Lady. We break for lunch where restaurants are in abundance and boast some of the best steaks and pizza. The afternoon takes us to Blue Cross, a place of many apparitions of Our Lady. It is situated at the base of Apparition Hill where Our Lady appeared to the children and where they were hiding from the communist police at the beginning of the apparitions.

Many pilgrims venture here to bask in the peace that emanates from this special area. From Blue Cross, we walk to Vicka's old house. Vicka is one of the six Medjugorje visionaries and we visit her old family house to see and to pray in the room where she had apparitions over a long period. After dinner, we can attend the evening prayer program.

Day 4 – Friday, September 4th

This morning after breakfast, we gather at the statue of Our Lady to walk through the vineyards, to the Hill of Apparitions (Podbrdo). This has been the traditional route taken by millions of pilgrims. The guides regale us with accounts of the first days of the apparitions, especially the first seven days, and tell us of the great spiritual journey the visionaries undertook. We simply climb, in prayer, to the site of the first apparition, the place where Our Lady first appeared to six frightened children in June of 1981. The Joyful Mysteries greet us at several points of our climb where we pray for a short time.

Day 5 – Saturday, September 5th

Today we have the opportunity to meet with one of the visionaries (depending on their availability) for a talk on the messages. Our Lady of Peace leaves us messages on the 25th day of each month through the visionary, Mirjana. Through these messages we are called upon to attend holy Mass, to fast, to read the bible, to attend confession and to pray the holy rosary. Our Lady maintains that we will receive many graces by praying the Rosary. In the afternoon, we have an optional trip to visit the Church of the Divine in Surmanci one of five villages belonging to Medjugorje parish, only a 15-minute drive from Medjugorje village. This is a very popular place with pilgrims as a miraculous healing took place before icon of the Divine Mercy, which is now exposed in the chapel. We also have opportunity to venerate relics of St Faustina and St John Paul II.

Day 6 – Sunday, September 6th

Our day begins with breakfast, and we then meet at the base of Cross Mountain (Križevac) to start our ascent. We pray the Stations of the Cross as we make our way to the summit. Our journey is rewarded by taking time for reflection and prayer by the cross located at the top of the mountain. We make our descent in time for holy Mass. In the afternoon, following our climb, we will have some free time.

Day 7 – Monday, September 7th

Today we gather to hear from one of the priests. With Medjugorje as their base, they can shed light on issues we may be struggling with such as confession or sacrifice. In the afternoon there is an optional tour to Cenacolo, which is a community for recovering drug addicts. There is a special lesson to be learned from the residents here, by their hard work, perseverance, and prayer. From there, we continue to the Castle, the retreat home of Patrick and Nancy Latta. Overlooking Medjugorje, this place of prayer and hospitality offers moments of reflection and often a short testimony of conversion. We conclude the afternoon with a visit to the peaceful grounds of the Oasis of Peace, a contemplative community where silence and Eucharistic Adoration are central. Take time for quiet prayer before returning to the village. After dinner, we attend the evening program.

Day 8 – Tuesday, September 8th

This morning, after breakfast, we set out on a peaceful drive through the Herzegovinian countryside to the quiet village of Tihaljina, home to the beloved Church of Our Lady of Grace. Known for the iconic statue of the Virgin Mary often mistaken for Our Lady of Medjugorje, this church has long been a place of deep devotion and quiet miracles. While not an official apparition site, Tihaljina has become a treasured stop for pilgrims due to the overwhelming sense of peace that fills the church and the countless reports of answered prayers. Upon arrival, we will celebrate Holy Mass at the Church of Our Lady of Grace, entrusting our hearts to the Blessed Mother in this place of serene beauty. The interior of the church is simple yet deeply reverent, allowing pilgrims to focus on silent prayer and reflection before the alabaster-like statue of Our Lady, whose gaze has moved many to tears. Following Mass, you'll have time for personal prayer and to light candles for your intentions. A small religious shop near the church provides rosaries and devotional items blessed on site, many of which pilgrims bring home as tokens of spiritual comfort and healing. We then enjoy a quiet moment to pause for lunch either as a group or with some free time in a nearby local restaurant. After dinner, we can participate in the evening program.

Day 9 – Wednesday, September 9th

Our guide will collect us at the Hotel for our transfer to the airport for our return flight.
