

The Word with Children

Tell the story of Samuel and Eli. And tell how Jesus also listened to God, that he might know what God wanted him to do; and then tell how he was obedient. God wants to have conversation with us as well. God calls to us, and talks to us, and wants us each to listen and to speak. And like both Samuel and Jesus, when we listen, we come to know how to live every day out of the very same love in our hearts.
