

The Word with Children

Think of a special moment in worship time at church when you were really glad to be here.

Perhaps it was a moment in a pageant when you felt a little like Mary, Joseph, or an angel. Perhaps it was when you were singing, or heard God speak in your mind, or when you imagined yourself into a Bible story. Speak of such a moment in your own experience. Perhaps it was a time when the sun streamed through a stained-glass window and gathered you up in its beauty, or when you felt God's love as someone smiled at you, gave you a hug, or called you by name. God is here and wants us to feel it is good to be here too.
