Women of Distinction

Cathy Lindemann
Evolution creative solutions

Cathy Lindemann is a Woman of Distinction, and a woman of many hats. In addition to being a business owner and entrepreneur, she is a WBENC Forum Member, WBEC ORV Board Member and WBEC ORV Program Committee Chair. Outside of ORV, Cathy is involved with the Goldman Sachs 10KSB Program and the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce.

Over many years, Cathy has played a key role in shaping impactful programming that supports the growth and success of women-owned businesses. Her strategic insight and collaborative approach have strengthened educational and networking opportunities for WBEs across the region. She actively participates in peer-to-peer learning, sharing expertise, encouraging collaboration, and fostering a supportive community for women entrepreneurs. Her engagement helps create an environment where WBEs can openly exchange ideas, challenges, and best practices.

Under her leadership, Evolution creative solutions has achieved significant milestones and recognition. The company has been named WBEC ORV's WBE Supplier of the Year twice, and has earned numerous awards for design and printing excellence from organizations such as Graphic Design USA, the Graphic Media Alliance, and other respected industry associations. Cathy herself received major honors in 2025, including being named Printer of the Year by the Graphic Media Alliance and Volunteer of the Year by WBEC ORV, reflecting her influence across the print, design, and women-owned business communities.
