Welcome, visitors! We are glad you are here! If you have any questions about our parish, our ministries, Mass intentions, etc., please talk with the greeters and they can direct you.

Dear parishioners and guests,

Greetings to the Catholic community of Stevens County. What a warm welcome I have received from so many of you these last few days. You make me feel right at home! It has been a delight getting to know you, and I look forward to the ways in which the Lord will strengthen and nurture the friendships we have already begun.

For those of you who do not know me, my name is Andrew Kelley, and I am a seminarian for the Diocese of Spokane. For the last five years, I have studied philosophy and theology at St. Patrick's Seminary in Menlo Park, CA. I have faith that your constant prayers for vocations have buoyed me along in hidden, but powerful ways. Thank you for your ongoing spiritual support!

The path that brings me to Colville this summer is long and winding. I grew up in rural Western Oregon, the eldest son of a long line of farmers, loggers, and nurserymen. I attended Gonzaga University, graduating in 2020 with a BA in music. I was applying for graduate schools to study classical voice and opera when I experienced a spiritual revival and renewed love for God and for our Catholic faith. The spark that ignited that fire came when I decided that my Lenten practice one year would be to attend Holy Mass every day. Hearing the Word of God and receiving that same Word in the Eucharist did things to my heart that I probably still don't fully understand. All I know is that my life was heading in one direction before that Lent, and another direction afterwards. It took some time for me to realize that a change had happened within me. But a change did, indeed, take place, and that season of conversion culminated in the decision to enter a program of priestly formation for the Diocese of Spokane.

Five years as a seminarian have flown by. Thanks be to God that it has led me here to Colville, to you. As a mere seminarian, there is a lot I cannot do. I cannot celebrate the Mass and I cannot hear your confession. But these things I can do: meet up for a friendly cup of coffee; go for a ride with other cycling enthusiasts and swap stories in the saddle; and I'm pretty good at coming over to people's houses and eating barbecue!

I thank the good Lord for granting me the opportunity to follow in the footsteps of your beloved Fr. Kenny. Pray for me that I, like him, may imitate our Lord's example of self-forgetful love, seeking to become ever more a man after Christ's heart. Be assured of my prayers for each of you.

Yours in the Lord, Andrew Kelley

Mystery of Faith (Adult faith formation)

We are watching The Wild Goose with Father Dave Pivonka. "Wild Goose" was a term that the ancient Celts had for the Holy Spirit. Our next episode is "The breath of the Almighty gives me life." This simple statement is the beginning and the ending of our pilgrimage of faith. God is love and the Lord's love is perfect, passionate, and unconditional. There is nothing that we can do that would cause God to love us more and nothing we can do that would cause Him to love us less. We are able to come to experience the beauty and freedom of God's love by the Holy Spirit. The Spirit of God reveals the love of the Father that changes us. When we experience God's love, we come to understand in a powerful way that we are in fact "lovable." God's Love reveals our beauty and goodness before him.

Mystery of Faith meets on Tuesday evening in the ICP Library following the 5:30 p.m. Mass.

Come and enjoy a light dinner, fellowship and a greater understanding of our faith.

She was team captain of the CHS Girls' Cross Country team and lettered in Track and Field. She has earned NEA All-Academic, All-Conference and All-League Honors. She carried a 4.0 GPA and was class valedictorian. She will attend Boise State University in the fall to major in Nursing. The Knights are Catholic fraternal organization consisting of more than 2.1 million members worldwide. The order is dedicated to church and community service and has donated more than $190 million and over 47 million volunteer-hours in charitable work this past year. It is with great pride that we recognize and salute the achievements of our high school seniors. Indeed, they are the future of our great nation.
