Welcome, visitors! We are glad you are here! If you have any questions about our parish, our ministries, Mass intentions, etc., please talk with the greeters and they can direct you.

Dear parishioners and guests,

This time last week, I joined my brothers in the seminary at Deer Lake for our annual summer camp for high school boys. The camp, hosted by the diocesan Office of Vocations, aims to provide a place for these young men to get together for a week of prayer, fellowship, and sport. A central theme of the camp is vocations, and the various talks and group activities at the camp are ordered to helping the men discover what the Lord might be calling them to and to say “Yes!” to it. We had over 50 boys from around the diocese attend! Praise God for calling these men together and for giving them the graces to open their heart to Him and to one another. Please pray for them, that they may hear the voice of the Lord and respond to Him wholeheartedly.

This year, we decided to devote the four days of camp to discussing the four masculine identities that each man is called to inhabit: every man is son, brother, husband, and father, and each man, through his vocation, grows in and reaches maturity through these identities. (The same can be said of women, who reach their own fullness of life as daughter, sister, wife, and mother).

Every man is son by virtue of the fact that he exists! We are sons of our earthly parents, of course, but also, we are received as sons of our Heavenly Father, and there’s nothing we can do to prompt God to revoke that privilege. Sonship is the deepest part of a man’s identity; it’s the only identity that is there from the very beginning, and it lasts until the very end of his life; he is always somebody’s son.

Each man is also called to be brother to his fellow men. The presentation on brotherhood was given by our very own Fr. St. Hilaire! He spoke about how being in relationship with brothers is a bit like being “polished” or shined; some polishes have grit or abrasives in them that, when applied and worked into a surface, eliminate the imperfections. Brotherhood can be like this – we challenge each other, hold each other accountable, call each other higher – and this experience, as uncomfortable and “abrasive” as it can be, changes who we are for the better.

Next week I’ll elaborate on the other two masculine identities (i.e., husband and father), and I’ll also share some reflections on the camp as a whole. Be assured of my prayers for you. Please pray for me.

Yours in the Lord, Andrew Kelley

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE SICK

Please pray for our Colville, Kettle and Northport Parishes. Adena Enright, Michael Gray, Jim Perkins, Oscar Romo, June Machala, Cinda Lorenzetti, Kenton Foundas, Chris Miller, Peter Perkins, Janneth Brown Drury, Monty LeCaire, Brittney Gagnon, Pat Graham, Margie Christensen, Dale & Jeannette McLeod, Mila Stewart, Lori Elledge, Susan Williamson, Mike Miller, and Lynn Gray.

(Please remember, the list rotates each week.)

If you or someone you know is sick or homebound and would like to receive a visit, Holy Communion or anointing of the sick, please call the Parish office.

Our Youth Group teens are attending Steubenville NW 2025 on the weekend of July 11-13. Activities in Spokane include Confession, daily Mass and Adoration, and time for reflection. Please pray for our youth: “Turn your loving gaze, O God, upon young people. They carry in their hearts a great hope: make them strong and pure, so that they can build their tomorrow with confidence. Let them receive freely the gift of the faith, accept it with gratitude, and develop it with generosity. Mother of Christ, and our Mother, help them to be now and forever faithful to Christ and the Church. Amen.”

Pam Vail, who has served in a variety of roles for our parishes is moving away. Pam will be relocating to Spokane in the near future and we want to thank her for all her time, talent and charisms in such a wide variety of duties. We wish her well in her transition to urban life. We would like to welcome our new social outreach coordinator who will be taking Pam’s place, Corina Melendez. Blessings to both women as they begin their new roles.

Mystery of Faith (Adult faith formation)

We are watching "The Wild Goose" with Father Dave Pivonka. "Wild Goose" was a term that the ancient Celts had for the Holy Spirit. Our next episode is "Gifts of the Holy Spirit." "The Spirit himself is 'God's gift' par excellence (cf. John 4:10), a gift from God, and in turn communicates different spiritual gifts to those who welcome him," said Pope Francis. The living God gives the gift of Himself to those who are baptized. From the Spirit flow other gifts, some of which are for our personal sanctification while others are for the building up and support of the body of Christ. Many of the gifts are very familiar to us (wisdom, counsel, love) while others are somewhat foreign (healing, prophecy, tongues). Whatever our experience, the gifts of the Holy Spirit are for all Christians, and no one should think that the gifts are not for them. Mystery of Faith meets on Tuesday evening in the ICP Library following the 5:30 p.m. Mass.

Come and enjoy a light dinner, fellowship and a greater understanding of our faith.

Save the Date: Saturday, July 19 Bring Your Own Kayak (BYOK) at Colville Flats from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Kayaks will be available if you don't have one. It'll be great fun – don't miss out!

Salish Sea Concert, Sunday July 20th at 7:00 p.m. at Immaculate Conception Church. Spanish harpsichordist Irene Roldàn's solo recital for the Urbino Early Music Festival in Italy was the most moving and exciting solo harpsichord recital Jeffrey Cohan has heard. One of Europe's prominent young prize-winning harpsichordists, Ms. Roldàn, currently living in Basel, Switzerland, won the prestigious Bach Prize at the XXXIII International Bach Competition in Leipzig, Germany, and has performed as soloist at major early music festivals in Italy, the Netherlands, Spain and around Europe. These performances will be her first in the United States. Let's welcome her to Eastern Washington!

Join us for Grandparents Day Brunch on Sunday, July 27 at 10:30 a.m. in the ICP Hall. The event is free, but preregistration is required. Register after Mass the weekends of July 6-7, 8-9, or 14-15, or contact Cindy Campbell, 612.423.4290.

Father Kenny receives daily prayers from members of the Seven Sisters Apostolate Ministry. Eight women from our parishes pray for him every day of the week throughout the year during a holy hour. This commitment began on June 27, the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, marking the start of the 2025-2026 year. We are fortunate to have dedicated women who pray for Father Kenny every day of the year. May God continue to bestow blessings and graces upon these women and our priest.
