Welcome, visitors! We are glad you are here! If you have any questions about our parish, our ministries, Mass intentions, etc., please talk with the greeters and they can direct you.

Dear parishioners and guests,

Last week, I was sharing about our summer discernment camp for high school boys. It's an opportunity for these young men to come together for some summer fun, and also for prayer and conversation on the topic of vocations. I shared last week that our theme this year had to do with the four masculine identities – son, brother, husband, and father – and how each vocation, even the priestly and religious vocations to celibacy, comes to full flower in these identities.

Each man is called to be a “husband.” For some, this is realized within the sacrament of Marriage. For the priest and religious, this is realized in a special relationship with Christ and the Church. The defining feature of spousal love is sacrifice: a spouse is someone who loves with a willingness to lay their life for their beloved. And this sacrificial love is the calling of every man and woman – not only those called to marriage, but celibates, too. Each of us, married or celibate, is called to lay down our life in love. Each man is called to be a bridegroom to a bride.

Spousal love is also fruitful – when two people love each other, new life is created! This is clear in the instance of married love, but it is also true for the celibate. Think, for instance, of St. John Paul II. Can there be any doubt that his love for the Church was fruitful? His love gave life to people all over the world and made him a father to many, including myself. Each man, whether as a priest, a husband, or a consecrated religious, is called to give life as a father.

Please pray for these boys in our diocese that they may courageously accept their vocation to be men of God as priests, religious, and married men!

Yours in the Lord,
Andrew Kelley, Seminarian

Just a reminder that Bishop Daly's Seminarian Formation Appeal is still going on. If you have not yet made a contribution, please consider doing so. Information and envelopes are available at the entryway of each church.

Our weekly Friendship Feast hosted a birthday celebration for Gene, a Vietnam Veteran who celebrated his 96th birthday with us on Thursday, July 3rd. Gene is a “regular” and has become a favorite for all who attend and volunteer at the Friendship Feast. The volunteers also recently received a thank you card from a weekly patron expressing thanksgiving for those who serve each week with ‘such love and hospitality.’ Thank you to our weekly Friendship Feast volunteers!

Mystery of Faith (Adult faith formation)

We are watching The Wild Goose with Father Dave Pivonka. Our next session is "The Spirit and the Eucharist." "At the center of the Church is the Eucharist, where Christ is present and active in humanity and in the whole world by means of the Holy Spirit." - Pope St. John Paul II. The Eucharistic liturgy is saturated with the presence of the Holy Spirit. From the moment you decide to go to Mass, the Holy Spirit is active and alive. Sadly, many people don't experience the Holy Spirit, and attending Mass becomes a chore for them rather than a life-giving encounter with Jesus. In this segment we will look at a few of the many ways that the Holy Spirit is present in the Mass that will enable you to encounter God when you attend the Liturgy. Mystery of Faith meets on Tuesday evening in the ICP Library following the 5:30 p.m. Mass.

Come and enjoy a light dinner, fellowship and a greater understanding of our faith.

THIS SATURDAY! Kayak at Colville Flats - Saturday, July 19 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Kayaks will be available if you don't have one. We have water, life jackets, a canopy for shade, and a lot of joy. Come and join us even if you don't want to kayak! Contact Cindy Campbell, 612.423.4290, if you have any questions.

Salish Sea Concert, Sunday July 20th at 7:00 p.m. at Immaculate Conception Church. Spanish harpsichordist Irene Roldàn's solo recital for the Urbino Early Music Festival in Italy was the most moving and exciting solo harpsichord recital Jeffrey Cohan has heard. One of Europe's prominent young prize-winning harpsichordists, Ms. Roldàn, currently living in Basel, Switzerland, won the prestigious Bach Prize at the XXXIII International Bach Competition in Leipzig, Germany, and has performed as soloist at major early music festivals in Italy, the Netherlands, Spain and around Europe. These performances will be her first in the United States. Let's welcome her to Eastern Washington!

Join us for Grandparents Day Brunch on Sunday, July 27 at 10:30 a.m. in the ICP Hall. The event is free, but preregistration is required. Register after Mass the weekends of July 6-7, 8-9, or 14-15, or contact Cindy Campbell, 612.423.4290.

Last week, two Third Order Carmelites spoke at our parishes about the Brown Scapular and invited parishioners to be enrolled. After Masses this weekend, Father will enroll those who are interested. Scapulars are provided for the newly enrolled and those already enrolled who need a replacement. In 1251, Our Lady appeared to St. Simon Stock and gave him the Brown Scapular, promising that anyone who dies wearing it will be saved from eternal fire. The Church later extended this privilege to all the laity who are invested in the Brown Scapular. True devotion involves veneration, confidence, and love for the Blessed Virgin Mary; wearing the scapular is seen as an expression of these. To receive the spiritual benefit, one must be enrolled by a priest and wear the scapular (continually) with devotion.
