Welcome, visitors! We are glad you are here. If you have any questions about our parish, our ministries, Mass intentions, etc., please talk with the greeters and they can direct you.

Dear parishioners and guests,

I share with you a reflection from Divine Intimacy on this All Souls Day.

“Holy Church, our good Mother, after having exalted with fitting praise all her children who now rejoice in heaven, strives also to help all those who still suffer in purgatory, and to this end intercedes with all her power before Christ, her Lord and Spouse, in order that as speedily as possible they may join the society of the elect in heaven.’ These are the words of the Roman Martyrology.

“Yesterday we contemplated the glory of the Church triumphant and implored her intercession. Today we consider the expiatory pains of the Church suffering and solicit for these souls the divine assistance: ‘Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.’ This is the dogma of the Communion of Saints put into practice. The Church triumphant intercedes for us, the Church militant; and we, in our turn, hasten to the help of the Church suffering. Death has taken from us those we love; yet, there can be no real separation from those who have died in the kiss of the Lord. The bond of charity continues to unite us, enfolding in one embrace earth, heaven, and purgatory, so that there circulates from one region to another the fraternal assistance which springs from love, which has as its end the triumph of love in the common glory of Paradise.

“The liturgy of the day is pervaded with sadness, but it is not the grief of those ‘who have no hope’ (1 Thessalonians 4:12), for it is resplendent with faith in a blessed resurrection, in the eternal felicity which awaits us. The passages chosen for the Gospels of the three Masses for the faithful departed speak to us explicitly of all these consoling truths, and in a most authoritative way, since they repeat to us the very words of Jesus: ‘This is the will of the Father who sent Me; that of all that He hath given Me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again in the last day’ (Gospel for the 2nd Mass: John 6:37-40). Could there be a more consoling assurance?

“Jesus presents Himself to us today as the Good Shepherd who does not want to lose even one of His sheep, nor does He spare any pains to lead them all to salvation. As if in response to the sweet promises of Jesus, Holy Mother Church, full of gratitude and enthusiasm, cries out: ‘For with regard to Thy faithful, O Lord, life is changed, not taken away; and the abode of this earthly sojourn being dissolved, an eternal dwelling is prepared in heaven’ (Preface). Rather than an inexorable end, death is, for the Christian, a door opening into eternity, a door which admits the soul into eternal life.”

Fr. Kenny St. Hilaire, Pastor

Safe Environment Training is required by the Diocese of Spokane for all volunteers who minister to children or vulnerable adults. The certification process has been streamlined and can now be completed entirely at home on your computer. If you already have an account with VIRTUS, please watch for an email that will take you right to the site where you can change your password and then log in and check for any new training. Mystery of Faith (Adult faith formation)

Dr. Tim Gray from Augustine Institute is discussing St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians. This short but beautiful letter is one that Paul wrote while imprisoned in Rome. In this session we will explore Paul's relationship with the Philippians - their koinonia or "partnership" and see what risky and rewarding kind of partnership God invites us to enter into with Him.

Mystery of Faith meets at 6:15 p.m. on Tuesday, October 28, in the ICP Library.

The Seven Corporal Works of Mercy

1. Feed the hungry
2. Give drink to the thirsty
3. Shelter the homeless
4. Visit the sick
5. Visit prisoners
6. Bury the dead
7. Clothe the naked

We can do corporal works of mercy in both small and large ways. Sometimes our daily lives get so busy that we can't spend the day volunteering at a homeless shelter, or we can't afford large donations to alleviate many people in poverty. That's when we find small ways to administer the corporal works of mercy. We can stop by a hospital or nursing home to say hello to a lonely patient or buy a meal for a homeless person on the street. Even giving just five dollars to a local charity counts!

A young priest recalls hearing the first confession of a second grader who had very little to confess. "Do you have any more?" the priest asks, "Sure," the youngster replied, "but I'm saving some for next time."
