For over 67 years this establishment has been a popular local landmark. It was originally opened in 1947 as The Rafters and was later named The Saddle and Spur. In 1972 it was established as The Library II and has been a regional favorite serving quality food & beverages for over 40 years. Always family owned and operated, this restaurant takes pride in the quality of our products and the awards we have received for them. We will always strive to maintain a high level of quality in all of our home-made meals, and to always maintain a comfortable, friendly atmosphere.
