

Pastoral Prayer and the Lord’s Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever.
Amen

*Praise God from whom all blessings flow.
Praise God, all creatures high and low.
Alleluia, alleluia!
Praise God, in Jesus fully known:
Creator, Word, and Spirit one.
Alleluia, alleluia!
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!*

*Litany of Intent

Empower us with gifts and desire, gracious God, to minister with your people.
Bless and guide us, O Lord.
Lord, we often boast that we are "one people under God," yet we are divided by strife and factions, the sin of disunity spreading among us like a disease. We are unable to measure up to our standards, much less to yours.
Forgive us, Lord.
Cleanse us and make us whole. Renew our minds and motives so that we might be your people, acceptable in your sight.
We seek your guidance, Lord.
The tensions and differences of race, traditions, culture, creed, and language consume us. Come among us, O God, and free us to live creatively, worship openly, and love unconditionally.

Forgive our arrogance, Lord.
Help us to remember that to bear the good news to others means to first live the good news among ourselves.
We seek boldness, Lord.
Remind us that we are dependent on one another. Show us we are to be concerned for all people. Teach us to love one another.
Teach us the joy of sharing, Lord.
We ask for power, guidance, and direction as your people on a Holy mission. As the community of faith, may we be faithful to the call to spread godly love, care, and concern to all people.
Give us a loving heart and willing spirit, Lord.

We give you thanks, Holy God, for the saints who have borne witness to your Word throughout the ages. We give special thanks for your servant Martin Luther King, Jr., who responded to your voice to serve and gave his life for the cause of love and justice in our land. May we too respond with the depth of commitment that will enable us to give of ourselves in full measure, even to the point of death. May the Holy Spirit guide and direct us, we pray, that we too might feel the call to serve your people. May we not tire of doing good in the face of wrong and evil. May we continue to work for a nation marked by justice, love, and fellowship as only you can create. Inspire our hearts, strengthen our wills, build up our resolve that we too might become worthy of the heritage that has been given to us in the witness of Martin Luther King, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

As this recent paraphrase of Psalm 49 illustrates, human beings have long been tempted to put their trust in earthly assets, especially wealth and fame. But these are not enduring possessions, and they cannot save us. Only in God can we find unfailing hope and eternal life.

*To all who are weary and need rest,
To all who mourn and need comfort,
To all who are lonely and need friendship,
To all who are glad and would serve their neighbors,
To all who are complacent and need disturbing,
To all who sin and need a Savior,

In the name of Christ and bids you welcome.*

Choral Introit

Welcome & Call to Worship Elder Geneva Baxley

Sisters and brothers rejoice.
We live sustained by God’s presence and love.
Thanks be to God.

As we mourn the wounds of God’s children,
God weeps with us.
As we give thanks for brothers and sisters who have lived in faith,
God gives thanks with us.

As we struggle for justice,
God struggles with us.

As we strive for peace,
God strives with us.
As we work to build the beloved community,
God works with us.

As we offer our gifts to all,
God blesses us.
Sisters and brothers rejoice,
Sustained by God’s presence and love we worship God.

Through its recurring phrase, “in my heart,” this poignant African American spiritual expresses the desire that our professed faith will not be superficial or hypocritical but will permeate the very center of our being, so that we may truly be the people God calls us to be.

TEXT and MUSIC: African American spiritual I WANT TO BE A CHRISTIAN Irregular

Prayer of Confession

Most holy and merciful God, we confess that we are often slow to do what is right and blind to the suffering around us. We speak against injustice, yet at times we cling to the comfort of privilege and fail to act for the oppressed. We have delayed the dreams you place before us, and we have been silent when courage was required.

Forgive us for our complicity in systems of inequality, for the times we have chosen ease over righteousness, and for the ways we participate, knowingly or unknowingly, in the suffering of others.

Awaken us, O God, with the power of your Spirit. Stir us to love mercy, to seek justice, and to walk humbly with you. Move us from words to bold deeds, from sympathy to action, and grant us courage to bear the cost of following your call, that your justice may be done on earth as it is in heaven, through Jesus Christ our Savior.
(Let us continue in prayer silently)

Congregational Response

Hear our prayer, O Lord. Hear our prayer, O Lord.
Incline thine ear to us and grant us thy peace. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

*Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
World without end, Amen, Amen.

The two equal phrases in each line suggest that this African American spiritual shares some characteristics of work or field songs that were used to coordinate the efforts of slaves involved in tasks (road clearing, ditch digging, etc.) that needed combined rhythmic strokes.

2025 Wrap Up

Chris, Scout, and Simon Hightower

Bear Spotted in New Jersey!

Simon Ray Hightower is 2 months old now. He was born Oct. 31st, 2025. This is a winter bear suit his grandfather bought him for Christmas. He looks sad, but he actually loves it.

Local News

Wow, time goes by fast. Once Simon was born, the world has been spinning (in a good way). With lack of sleep everything feels slow, but then you look back and he is already 2 months old and I haven't even updated y'all yet. It is wild, beautiful, and a blessing! School is out for the winter, but I am staying busy. I work for the IT department 3 days a week and I am at the hospital for my CPE (Clinical Pastoral Education) program another 3 days. I graduate from the CPE program in April. There have been other changes that will be

BIG UPDATES!

- Simon was born Oct. 31st, 2025.

- Another Master's Degree - My ordination process still has another year, so I have decided to stay at Princeton to get a MACEF (Master's of Arts in Christian Education and Formation). This will only add one more year and will align with my ordination (if all goes well, in spring 2027).

Up Next

- School Starts back - January 26th

- CPE Graduation - I will graduate from my first unit in April.

- Transition from "Inquirer" to "Candidate" - TBD

Scripture of the Month

Psalm 139:13-14

¹³ For it was you who formed my inward parts;
you knit me together in my mother's womb.

¹⁴ I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.
Wonderful are your works;
that I know very well.

Bird of the Month

Bald Eagle - America's Bird; this bird reminds me of my mother. Every year, at my parent's house, there are a pair of Eagles that come by and my mother would always point them out. On Halloween, moments before Simon was born, a Bald Eagle swooped by the hospital as if Simon's grandmother was saying "hello."

Ending Remarks

I want to thank everyone for their support, letters, and prayers for Scout and I. We are so grateful to have a good community back home!
